Infidelity of a Wife—Probable Home-icide.
On Friday morning, at an early hour, a woman named John Tomlinson, residing at Union township, and employed in a coal pit on Saw Mill Run. The circumstances of the infidelity are as follows: Tomlinson, an inebriated man, was in his home on Monday morning, and was found by his wife, who had been informed of his infidelity, in a state of extreme intoxication. She was so enraged that she shot him in the chest with a revolver, and he died shortly thereafter.

The Criminal Court.
Yesterday afternoon the case of the Commonwealth vs. Geo. F. Thompson, indicted for assault and battery with intent to rape, was resumed. The accused failed to make anything like a plausible defense, and the jury found a verdict of guilty. He has thus accumulated two charges—indecent exposure and intent to rape. The penalty for the first offense is imprisonment for not less than one year, and for the latter imprisonment for not less than five years.

Charles Wright, colored, indicted for the murder of a woman, and other offenses.
The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

Col. Herrow's Indictment.
Our fellow citizen, Wm. A. Herrow, Esq., has just been advised of the indictment of the grand jury against him. He is charged with the murder of a woman, and other offenses.

MECHANICAL LUNATIC ASSOCIATION.
At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Mechanical Lunatic Association, held on Monday evening last, the following members were elected to office: President, J. B. Brown; Secretary, J. C. Smith; Treasurer, J. D. Jones.

REMAINS EXHIBITED.
In another column we have reported the funeral services for the late John Doe. The remains were exhibited to the public in the city morgue, and were found to be in good preservation.

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.

Trimbles' Varieties—Selling Liquor to Minors.
Last night, about eleven o'clock, the police in Allegheny encountered a lot of very noisy and disorderly boys—ranging from twelve to sixteen years of age—who were on their way home from Trimbles' variety store, a "run out show" on Penn street. One of the boys, aged sixteen years, was drunk to the point of being unable to stand, and he was taken to the police station.
