mylskily JOHN STEWART, Onchies have our citizens mobbed, imprisoned, and hang, for no 'crime, but that of being born in a Free firste, and loving their natural birthright. We have endured inbulls and aggressions, fraud and violence, in the halls of Congress, and in our own free cities. We have given up the weak to the fangs of the stave-furner, and seen the mark of the beast wet mpon the forehead of our most illustrations 'men. "All 'this' has not been enough. "Slavery has demanded" more; and when we 'refused to grant more, she seed her wicked bludgeon, and tried to demoltar the 'fabric' of that fair Union which had sheltered her treasonable head.
