Instantane-ously our deep-mouthed bull-dogs flung out their sonorous response. The robel artillary opened, and shell and round shot came tearing across the open space back of the bluff. May I be forgiven for the malicious thought, but I d certainly did wish one or two might drep be-hind the bluff among the crowd of skulkers hovering under the hill at the river's edgo. Very handsome was the response our broken infarty battsfrom pourd in. The enemy d soon had reason to remembor that, if not Still in their asbes live the wonted fires, <text><text><text><text><text><text> Construction of the second sec And thus by ton o'clock one ontire Division of our army was kore de combat. A deepr gap in our front line was made, the rebels had nearly pierced through, and were oily held back by McArthur's brigade, and the rest of W. H. L. Wallace's division, which hurried over to its sustance.
