CIPATION. CIPATION. I learn from good authority that Charles Carroll, grandson of the signer of the Dec-laration of Independence, and now in pos-session of the manor, halls the proposition of the President and Congress for compen-sated emancipation in this state with glad-ness and joy. He is the largest slave-bolder in Maryland, with the exception, perhaps, of Edward Lloyd and one of the Hewletts. The slave population of his most humane master, and has told his slaves not to leave him, because the time would come when they would be free on their native sell, and that then he would employ them and pay them good wages for their labor. millions per annum, until the war is over, and the annual expenditure reduced to peace establishment, when the amount raised can gradually be-decreased. To show how a tax can be cheaply collected, with but little burden upon any body, the following table is published :

their habor. Charles M. Tavish, also a grandson of the inbor. Charles M. Tavish, also a grandson of the signer, owns some fifty slaves, and is in favor of the abolition of slavery in Maryland. He is, however, a stanneh Re-publican, and spoke, acted and voted for Lincoln and Hamlin, amid the storm of ob-loquy which some two thousand others dared to brave at the peril of their lives, and who continue to be living witnesses in favor of Republican principles in a slave State. Republicanism in slave-land is ne-cessarily synonymous with hostility to shavery, and if the witnesses for the Chi-cago platform had been sustained in this The principal item, one hundred and three millions, the Boston Committee cago platform had been sustained in this State it would now be Republican. urge, can be collected through stamps, and will thus cost but little to collect. The Committee says:

"Under this plan it is proposed that every form under this plan it is proposed that every person or company, subject to taxes in any form under the act, shall make periodical returns of the smount of business (subject to tax) which has been done by them; and shall make payment of said tax by affixing to their returned stamps of the required

d MARTLAND JER IN CONGRESS. You will notice that Leary, Crisfield and Webstor, of the Maryland delegation in Congress, dodged the vole on the emanci-pation bill for the District of Columbia. This means more than meets the eye. These gentlemen have shown a clear apprecia-tion of the future on the subject of alworry in this State. They see that it is speedily. Housed, and they have rightly refused to let their voices be heard against the ex-tinction of the curse at the national capital. Mr. Crisfield has one hundred slaves, and represents the lower district on the eastern shore, and he is now in a position to lead the rising anti-slavery hosts that are al-ready beginning to stir in our State. This is also true of Messraw Webster and Leary, though I believe they are not large slave-holders. The Boston report is signed by Messrs. E. B. Bigelow, Thomas Lamb and Charles G. Nazro. The process by which Mr. Bigelow arrives at the sum stated as the bulk of sales of merchandise and produce as this : $2,600,000,00 350,000,00 holders. The vote of May and Calvert does not surprise anybody; it would have been a miracle for either of these persons to vote-for liberty to the slave anywhere; but the vote of Frank Thomas against the bill grieves and shames his Republican friends in this State. His bold and manly stand against the rebel cause and its cornor stone, slavery, at the Front street thestre Total, annually,.... "Assuming that these are sold (on an average) three and a half times before they reach the consumer; the total annual amount of sales would be $10,325,000,000." The plan has been adopted by the Boards of Trades of Boston and Philadelphia, and stone, slavery, at the Fool cause and its corner of Commerce of New York on Wednesday. The Slave Catcher Hooker. General Hocker has issued a fresh or-der to his men respecting the slaves of resh el and loyal masters.
