An Important Movement. The Union members of the New York The Union members of the New York State Legislature, in a cancus held on Friday evening last, united in an address and resolutions on the present political aspects of the country. They are not yet published, but the N. Y. Evening Post understands that they ask all loyal men who approve of the war and of the general conduct of it by the Administration; who are in favor of prosecuting it until the last armed rebel has surrendered his position; who are opposed also to the extension of slavery to the ferritories of the United States, and approve the policy of emancipation inau-gurated by the President, to join together in the election of suitable officers for the government of the State. A large number of the members formerly connected with different political parties concur cordially in the action of the eaucus, and after the adjournment of the legislature will present the matter to the attention of their con-

DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT is prepared from the racipe of Dr. STREEMS SWEET, of Connecticut, the great Bone Setter, and has been used his practice for the last twenty years with the most actualishing success. As a part of the set of his practice for the last it wenty years with the most astonishing success. As an external remedy it is without a rival, and will alleviate pain more specific than any other preparation. For all Bichumatic and Nerveus Disorders it is truly infallible, and as a carative for Bores, Wounds, Sprains, Bruises, &c., its seothing, healing and powerful strengthening properties excite the just wender and asionishment of all who have ever given it a trial. Over four hundred corribects of remarkable curse performed by it within the last two years, attest this fact.
