LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[FROM OUR EVENING EDITION:]

From Gen. Banks'. Division-Skirmleh Mear Harrisonburg.-The Rebiels Repulsed.

HARRISONAUNO, VA., April 27.—On yesterday. Elernoon, the picksts of Col. Donnelly's brigade, stationed sight miles hence, on the Gordonaville road, were attacked by a large force of Col. Ashby's rear guard, and driven back. One man, armed Jasac Seelley, of the Mornay years regiment, was killed, and three others wounded.

The reserve of the 6th Remaylvanis regiment, was killed, and three others wounded.

The reserve of the 6th Remaylvanis regiment, was the surely in their reyr midst; A wagoa was seen gathering up and carrying off their dead and wounded.

Oring to the horrible state of the road be tween this town and Col. Donnelly's encampment, and the impossibility of forwarding him supplies, Dennelly has been ordered to take a new poption nears; the town until the roads were in a better condition.

Jackson's main body is oncamped near the cast-bank of the Shenandeah bridge, over the river, which was strongly picksted by him, and underlaid with inflammable material ready to fire an our approach.

The rodary deportment of our troops is a convincing proof to the population, that our object, is but a mission of peace, and that the secession leaders have been guilty of gross, interpresentation and duplicity towards them.

All the churches whose pastors are not in the secession leaders have been guilty of gross, interpresentation and duplicity towards them.

All the churches whose pastors are not in the secession leaders have been guilty of gross, interpresentation and duplicity towards them.

All the churches whose pastors are not in the secession army are open to-day, and the town warm the appearance of a Northern country Sabbath. HOTELS. TO PETROLEUM REFINERS STEAMBOATS. Bytander Gen. Prenties, did you have any of General Buell's command with you to-day? IN GOOD OBDEB. Bystander—Gen. Frenties, du you toany of General Buell's command with you today?

Prentiss—No. He is at Nashville.

Bystander—That cannot be. We have certain intelligence of his arrival at Mount Pleasant, on his road to join you.

Prentiss—Buell is not coming here, and if any forces are on the way they must be very small. I know nothing of them.

Bystander—Had you all your forces engaged to-day?

Prentiss—all except one division, which is at Cramp's Landing, several miles below. T expect they will be captured.

Bystander—What has become of your army that we contended with to-day? Have they crossed the river, do you think?

Prentiss—No. They have retired to our gunboats and intrenched works. There will
