REBEL CROANS OVER THE FALL OF NEW ORLEANS

COMMODORE TATNAL IN DESPAIR

GENERAL STURGIS SUSPENDED

KANSAS MADE ANOTHER ORDER

NEW NAVY ORDERS

CONTRABANDS TO BE EMPLOYED

Special Dispatch to the Gazette

PHILADELPHIA, May 5.—The Norfolk Day Book speaks of the news of the fall of New Orleans as the most deplorable that ever took place in America. It says: "Never since the world began was there a transaction so dark, so mysterious and so altogether unaccountable."

John Minor Botts has been sent by the Philadelphia Press to report on the situation in the city. He writes: "The impression at the Navy Department, that the rebels before New Orleans were not taken by force, but that they were so weak that they could not stand up to the regular army, has been confirmed."

The manna of the fleet are immense, but what there is of it, provisions, etc., is being used up very rapidly. It is estimated that the fleet will be able to last only a few days longer.

Dispatches which have been received from Gen. Halleck, say nothing of the evacuation of Corinth by the rebels, though so strongly implied in the reports.

In resigning his position in the rebel navy, Commodore Tatnal has taken occasion to write a public letter, in which he speaks of the impracticability of taking the Memphis up the river.

The rebel correspondents say that Kanawha is delivered from the hands of the Union army. General Sturgis has been ordered to Washington to give an account of his doings.

Gen. Dever is given a new command in the rebel army. He is to take the place of Gen. Mitchell, who is in Tennessee—his resignation of the office.

The Department of Kansas has been separated from the Department of the Mississippi, and is now a separate department.

Gen. Halleck is in command of the rebel army in the West. He is to take the place of Gen. Sherman, who is in the East.

The rebel army is now in the hands of Gen. Sherman. He is to take the place of Gen. Halleck, who is in the West.
