Much interesting matter will be found on our first and fourth pages this morning. THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONNITTEE WILL meet at the office of S. SCHOTER, Jr., Esq., No. 189 Fourth st., on Saturday, May 24th, 1862, at ten o'clock, a. m. Punctual and full attendance is requested. The Religious Anniversaries. The Religious Anniversaries.

The religious aniversaries, with which this city has been blessed for the past few days, are now nearly concluded. In a pecuniary point of view they have been very, and desorvedly, unsuccessful. There is no greater humbug on record than these annual assemblages of vagabondizing parsons and seedy philanthropists, who come here to pray money out of the pockets of simple people. So far from accomplishing any good, the moneys collected at these anniversary meetings support only a set of idle. good, the moneys collected at these anniver-sary meetings support only a set of idle, worthless ranters, who are too lazy to earn their own livelihood, except in this swind-ling manner. Year after year these gath-erings have been held, and vice and immo-rality are just about as rampant and pre-valent as ever. Ordinarily such a dismal failure to accomplish anything would be the ruin of any organization; but when people dabble with religion they seem to lose their common sense, and so they have gone on. common sense, and so they have gone on, giving largely and receiving no returns. common sense, and so they have gone on, giving largely and receiving no returns. This year we are glad to notice that the war has out off the supplies of the pious anniversary beggars, and we hope that they will suffer accordingly.—New York Herald, of in the land has done more to promote religious real; enterprise, harmony, and a wide-spread, ennobling christian benevo lance, than the great societies which hold their agniversaries in New York. They have fartilized the nations with the streams of their religious benevolence, and have aroused and kept up a noble spirit of emulation in well-doing among the churches, and their reflex effects upon the churches, and their benefits to destitute and heathen lands. The cold, ribald sneer with which they are treated by the Herald is a just and withering rebuke to the thousands of clergymen and professedly christianmen, who patronize the Herald, and take it to their houses, and thus by their example aid in corrupting their families. There is no excuse for this conduct now whatever. It is sheer, wanton devilishness, or criminal thoughtlessness. The Herald contains no later or fuller were there were two undered hogsheads of sugar the property of a widow lady in Attakapos. Two of the barges of the Opelousus Rail-roof the science were necessary. The cotton belonged to neutral foreigners, and was safe can transportation. No young person can read the Herald regularly without having his principles, his morals, and his literature corrupted. And yet how many parents take this sheet to their houses, and laugh over its sublimity of impudence, its downright lying, and it sneers at everything lovely and of good report. Let not such parents complain when called to mourn over the sudden and unexpected lapse of Green Seed Cotton. The Agricultural Department of the U. The "centrabands" have rather a hard time of it have. Kidnappers surround them on "very side, and the government is obliged to be very watchful to protect them. The alavaholders of Maryland, or some of them, have organized a band of robbers, who station themselves on the other side of Anacostia, bridge to catch contrabands conding into this city. The Republacan of this morning states that quite recently a Republacan of the morning states that quite recently a Republacan colored men, contrabands, within three milles of the bridge, and supposing that they could make their way safely hither, left them. The contrabands were suddenly attacked, on the other side of the bridge, by tacked, on the other side of the bridge, by a band of armed men, and a severe light ensued. Six of the colored men were captured confined, but afterwards broke out while their captors were busy in trying to overtake the other fugitives. Several other cases of highway attack upon colored peo-ple near this bridge have occurred, and it is time that the government should interple near this bridge have occurred, and it is time that the government should interfere for the sake of the reputation of the city. The neighboring slaveowners in Maryland have been sour and vicious since the District Emancipation Affairs in New Orleans. Our detailed advices are up to the 28th t which time there had been no formal surrender, although the city was at the nercy of our ships in the harbor. The papers, of the 28th, betray a very rebel-lious spirit, without a single exception.

This we honestly believe, and while we do not utter our. convictions in a vain-glorious spirit; we will not shrink from their free and independent expression.

TALK ON CHANGE. [From the New Orleans Crescent, April 28.]
There were no gatherings on the flags of arondolet street. In and about the City Carondolet street. In and about the Chy Hall and on Camp street the throngs of citizens were immense. We were astounded at the large numbers of women and children that promenaded the several streets, having that promenaded the several streets, having their termination on Canal street. Of course, there was nothing of a business nature thought of; the chief attraction was in and about the City Hall. The proceedings of the City Council will be found elsewhere. A number of the federal vessels proceeded up the river on Saurday, evening, but returned vesterday forenous.

the representatives of European governments, are all displayed from their respec tive offices, excepting in two or three in-stances. The Consulate of Bremen has no stances. The Consulate of Bremen has no flag, and two or three other nations have no representatives here. Several private citizens, foreign subjects, have hoisted their country's emblem over their residences. The destruction of property has been immense, much more to than necessary. True, all the cotton was expected to have been burnt, but why the sugar and molasses on the levee was sacrificed in the manner it was, that is, carried off by pilerers and the rabble, we cannot say. A part of, a cargo of provisions, just landed from Red river, was also stolen. If the agrarians had made an equal division, it might have been of more benefit, but some parties, not satisfied with baskets and bags of sugar, rolled
