HOUSTON, TEXAS, APTIL 60, 1002 Many churches are vacant, their minis-ters having gone to the war. Most of our Sunday schools are disorganized, and but few, I fear, will be revived until the war closes. Intemperance and profanity abound, and are fearfully on the increase. Beligion is at its lowest ebb. Such a thing as the conversion of sould agema accrede to onter Texans on the War. Loyal Texans, who have just arrived at Springfield, Missouri, report that the peopie of Texas are sick of the war; that the death of McCullson resulted in the dis-bandment of part of his force, and that the resurned soldiers admit that the game of lamitics of war? ple of Texas are sick of the war; that the
