capes would occupy more room than you can spare for my tetters, and therefore I think I. can do no better thin to device the remaindor of this sheet to the 102d. Nobly did this regiment sustain the honor of the old Iron City. From the time they first came into the engagement, till night, about five o'clock, they stood bravely up and received the enemy's firs, returning one twice as destructive. Not a man faitered, but all fought bravely on, till wounded or killed. Grape and canister was poured into them in fearful quantities, but still they hold their ground, and drove the onemy back by their terrible first they first was obliged to retire. One incident connected with this regiment, I must rolate. A battery of the list U. S. Artillery, posted on their right, had become mired, and the men being under a heavy fire of musketty vandended it. The enomy previving this, took their chors and guidon, and endevored it to take the guns, but a well directed and standy fire is used them to first way on the mow in the past few days we have been a seasy fir but her the past few days we have been a seasy of in building a road in the line of their retrat, and whon finished our army will advance egain.
