consideration and ace what could be done," and "sich." I do not know when the diabolical influence of secession was ever brought more forcibly to my mind than by the relation of the follow-ing anthentic incident. A good sound "Chion" man, living near Fredericksburg, had a guard placed by Gen. McDowell around his house, garden and out-houses. On last Saturday alght, one of this guard—a member of the 8th Penneylvania Reserve, a young man from Armstrong county, whese name I could not learn—was shot in the side by some one in this "Union" man's garden. Others of the patrol rushed in, and caught the assassin, with laisgun yet smoking, bus hand. Would you have had any time within the past week. Ile' wants to do something more than merely do-feat Beauregard, or allow him to oracuate and alip away farther into the Guif States. Before him lice, or is still supposed to lie, the sliph Valley, or west of the sea-beard secceded States. In short, they have swarmed here, and the General proposes to hive them. The copture of an entire army of a hundred thousand men is an enterprise of some pith and moment. Day by day it becomes evident that the General and the Assistant Secretary of War (who is personally representing, the that the General and the Assistant Secretary of War (who is personally representing the War office on the ground) have set before them no other object: We may well, thoro-fore, afford to await, if success so brilliant as the clearing of the Mississippi valley and the Gulf States of robel armies shall crown one rediction delaws. petrol rushed in, and caught the assassin, with his gun yet smoking in his hand. Would you believe it? It was the "Union" wan him-reff! The poor soldfer died on Sunday morn-ing, and his murderer is under arrest. Had it not been for the interference of the officers, the men who caught the distardly assassin would have hung him on the spot-the beat thing that could have been done. "Gaving His harden." Biwons anout THE INFANDING, DATTLES.--Washington is filled with rumors touching the impending battles at Bichmond and Corinth, it being the provailing impression that there will be hard fighting at both these places, and that very shoridy. Reports from the Penia-sula are favorable, and many think that McClellan will be in the reled Capital within tworth four hours. The fact that 'he has passed the swemps, and is in the region of dry land and good reads, is accepted as a good sign; and indeed there are few who question his success. There is also great confidence in Halleck's position. at Corinth. Yet news is anxiously looked for from that quarter, where the hostile armies have now for some time been in close proximity to each other. his men to take some bacon, flour, etc., which the short of the sound bacon, hour, etc., which the short of the short of the short of the short of the road as they field. The officer thus arrested is said to be no other than Col. Van Wyck, of the 50th, Member of Congress from the New-burg, N. Y. District. It is time that this the 56th, Member of Congress from the New-barg, N. Y., District. It is time that this sort of thing were stopped. On Thursday evening, the Wisconsin delegation, of both Houses, waited upon the President. to ask the reinstatement of Gen. Hamilton to the command of his division. They presen-ted politions 4: the same purpose, signed by thirty Sensitors and over one hundred Repro-sentatives.

THE TREASURY BUILDING EXTENSION .- The work upon the Treasury building extension is progressing finely. Most of the granite col-umns which have encumbared Ponnsylvania avenue, in front of the White House, for sava eral years past, have been raised to their proper position. It is said that the work will be prosecuted without Interruption until the extension is completed, the room being much needed for the increased business of the Treasury Department. EXPREMENTS WITH IRON SHILLDS .--- Experiments have been made at the navy yard, at Washington, to test the capability of the description of iron armor adopted by the Navy Department to resist shot. It was found that it amounts to a porfect shield against such ordnance as easily pierced the armor in England, similar to that of the celebrated vessel Warrior. The President witnessed the experments, the details of which it is improper t publish.
