IRRIVAL OF REFUGEES. HIGHLY IMPORTANT INFORMATION BEAUREGARD AT BICHMOND. THE REBEL FORCE. de., de., de.

BALTIMORE, May 23 .- The special correspondent of the American, at Fortress Monroe, says, under date of yesterday : The steamer from White House this afternoon brings a number of passengers from the headquarters of Gan. McClollan, which were in proximity to Bottoms Bridge, over which a portion of the army had already passed. A second division having passed the Chickshominy, at New Bridge, about seven miles further up, and within eight miles of Richmond. It is rumored that a proposition for an port, which, after proper consideration, the similatice of ten days had been made by the rebels, but of course, no such idea could be The advance was understood to be within nee miles of the city, to which point the enemy has fallen back, with but slight effort to check our onward movement. The advance by way of New Bridge enters the city on the north side.

The tug Dragon, from the James river this meraing, brings down two very intelligent citizens of Petersburg, who fled from that city morning, brings down two very intelligent citizens of Petersburg, who fied from that city yesterday to avoid the conscription set. In view of the important information they bring, it would not be proper to make their hames public; having been brought to Domi Goldsborough, they ware immediately sent to Gen. Wool; and will leave this morning for Gen. McClellan's headquarters, for whom they have some information which they have not yet made public.

They represent the condition of affairs at Petersburg and the surrounding country as of a most deplorable condition, and the sufferings of the people almost beyond endurance. The scarnity of provisions was so great that overything was saized for the army, and even this soldiers have been on half, rations for a week past, with no prospect of even this supply conducting for any great length of time. The rebet army, or at least a great portion of it, they represent being demoralized and dispirited to such an extent that it is only hald together by the most vigorous appliance of military law.

Still the work of conscription was progressing, and the roads to Blohmond were througed with unarmed men, old and young, being driven along under a strong guard of armed men. They represent that no people in modern times have suffered more than the people of Virginia are naw sunfering, every household being in mourning with the prospect of an approaching famine.

They also state that Beauregard arrived as Relmond on Tuesday. On being questioned as to their authority for this statement, they entertained that the threat would be carried into effect. It would produce the greatest efforts on the part of the citizens to prevent poorly armed troops of recent levies, who Permanent Clerk, pro tem, Hon. W. H. service. Descripts report that the infantry force in the violnity of that work is nearly thirty thousand.

Recruiting Stations Reopened -- Col-lectors for Southern Ports -- Sinve Case in Washington. Washington, May 23 .- The War Departtroops, but has re-opened the recruiting stations lately closed by order. Some new regiments will be raised for special duty, as it Kentucky, for the military commandan there. Beyond this, no formal call has been made on the States for volunteers. The main object is to obtain a reserve to fill up existing regiments.

(Ip. to noon, to-day, the War Department has received no news of importance-either from Gen. McClellan's or Gen. Halleck's army The Secretary of the Treasury has appointed George S. Dennison, from the neighborhood of New Orleans, as special agent and collector to open that port at the earliest practical period, in order to carry out the President's proclamation. Collectors will be appointed for Beautort. N. O., and Port. A conflict between the military and oivil authorities took place last night, growing out of the fact as is generally represented. This is squad of soldiers went to the jail for the purpose of effecting the release of a colored woman, alleged to be under military protection, and who had been sont thither by virtue of a decision of the Commissioners, under the Englitee Slave law. The jailer, Mr. Milburn, and Deputy Marshal Phillips refused to deliver them the woman without an order from Marshal Lamon. The consequence was, the military made them prisoners, together with the counsel for the claimant of the woman, and lodged them in the Central Guard House, and removed the woman to another part of the city.

At a cubacquent period the Marshal himself, accompanied by Suprintendent of Police Webb and one of his fergeants, repaired, to the jail, and in turn captured, and made the two military guards prisoners.
