General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church.

The Assembly met at 9 o'clock, and after spending half an hour in devotional exercises, proceeded to business.

The report of the Finance Committee was presented and read.

It represents that the state of the Church is rather encouraging, notwithstanding the unfavorable condition of the country.

The deficiency in the treasury was less than last year. The following are the appropriations for the ensuing year:

Table with 2 columns: Item (Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Church Extension, Education) and Amount ($21,500, 16,000, 4,000, 2,500).

Total $44,000. The report was amended by adding $2,000 to the appropriation to the Board of Education.

The Committee recommended that appropriations be appropriated as the respective Presbyteries, as heretofore.

Dr. Easton from the Committee appointed to confer with a similar committee of the Reformed Presbyterian Synod of the West, reported that they were cordially received by the United Presbyterian General Assembly, and submitted the following petition for the approval of the synod:

(See proceedings of the other body for the details of the petition.)

HIGHLY IMPORTANT NEWS!

Corinth Evacuated!

THE REBEL FORCES OCCUPIED BY THE UNITED STATES FORCES.

Retreat of the Rebels to Okolona.

DISPATCH FROM GEN. HALLECK.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—A telegraph dispatch has just been received from an official source that the rebels left Corinth last night, and that Gen. Nelson occupied their intrenchments at 8 o'clock this morning.

War Department, May 20.—A dispatch just received fully corroborates the former message that Corinth is evacuated by the rebels and occupied by our troops. Prisoners say that the enemy left last night for Okolona, a point about 150 miles South of Corinth, on the Mobile and Ohio railroad.

(Corinth, a new stand-point of Beauregard's army, which has retreated from Corinth, is in Moore County, Mississippi, near the Alabama line, and on the Mobile and Ohio railroad.) The regular army of the United States, which has retreated from Corinth, is in Moore County, Mississippi, near the Alabama line, and on the Mobile and Ohio railroad.

At the hotel in Front Royal, on the night of the 18th, your correspondent saw an escaped Confederate who had been largely in the rebel ranks, and having seen her but a few minutes, she was immediately recognized by the presence at Front Royal at a time when the rebels were surrounding it, suspicion was aroused that she was the bearer of an important message from the rebels and was not to be trusted. She was immediately taken to the military command there, and she was the bearer of an important message from the rebels and was not to be trusted.

The first intelligence of the attack on Front Royal was brought to Winchester by one of the Iron Horse Guards, and was telegraphed to Gen. Banks at Strasburg by Capt. Flegg, Assistant Quartermaster, 2d Reg't, 1st Cavalry, who was on duty at Front Royal at the time the rebels were attacking it. The rebels were attacking it from the north and east, and were in possession of the town and the surrounding country.
