THEATHS.—The efficient stage manager of the Pittsburgh Theatre, Mr. H. Lewis, has his first benefit in Pittsburgh at the theatre to-night. Mr. Lewis has been longer in the theatrical profession than any other man outside of New York city, and we doubt very much if there is a performer now treading the two the time of the Union strengthening their every sinew, they rush on, side by side, with drawn asbre, to bathe them slike in the blood of treason and cowardice.

boards who has filed such a number of positions about a theatre as the present stage manager of Old Druy. Mr. Lewis will leave our city for England, in company with Mr. Henderson, about the middle of July, and will doublets be absent some twelve months. We look for an overflowing house at the theatre to night.

Capt. John C. Dowling.—This brave young officer, who had command of Co. B. 105th Regiment, Col. McKnight, and who fell in the hattle at Fair Oaks, was a native of Jefferson county, and at the time the rebellion broke out was prasticing medicine in Greenville, Clairon county. He served as Frait Lieutenant in Capt. Wise's company during the three months campaign, and was chosen Captain on the promotion of Capt. Wise. He subsequently enlisted a company for the war, and fell at the head of his command in the bloody battle before Richmond. He was well known throughout Jefferson and adjoining counties, and his death is deeply regretted.

Departure of the Baltimoreans. The Baltimore delegation, after spending a short time among our merchants, and in visit ing our principal manufacturing establishments, took the train this afternoon, at one ing our principal manuscutring establishments, took the train this afternoon, at one o'clock, for Chicago. A special train of olegant cars had been prepared for them, and were in waiting at the Allegheny depot of the Pitteburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company. Arriving on the platform, and provious to taking their seats in the cars, one of the delegates requested every Baltimorean to step forward, in line, which they did. He then proposed "three cheers for Pitteburgh," "three cheers for Allegheny," and "three cheers for the Union," which were given with a heatty good will. They soon after took their seats, and amid many hand-shakings and adieus, the train moved off. Upwards of forty of our citisons accompany them to the flourishing city of Chicago, where a cordial reception doubtless awaits them.

Verdict Against the City. This morning, in the District Court, an argument was had in the case of George Painter's administratizes. the city of Pittsburgh, upon a motion for a new trial. MABHINGTOR, June 12, 1862.
House.—Mr. Stevens, of Pa., reported back the tax bill from the Committee on Ways and Means. The Senate had made 314 amendments, a large number of them being of an unimportant character. In order to facilitate definite action he recommended a general nonconcurrence in all the amendments, and then ask for the appointment of a Committee of Conference.
