J. F. DILAVO, Chairman.

SCHOTER, JE., Secretary. The Democratic Convention.

This body met on Wednesday at the Court House, some twenty-cight districts being unrepresented, for which they have great cause to be thankful, as they have escaped committal to such a jurgen absurdities, fustion: and bombast, as even it shall be a sufficient defence to any such chai the claimant has belonged or does belong to el scaped committal to such a jargon of duced. We question if the Committee

The great object seems to have been to denounce the Republicans, and the emancipation of the negroes, while at the same time they wished to appear as the supporters of the government and of the war. Their efforts to appear what they are not, and to disguise what they are, has involved them in a maze of absurdities, and put the town in one broad grin.

It seems the two wings of the party ame together in a fraternal embrace on this occasion, and charitable persons have surmised that their minds became so obscured by the excitement of the joyous reion, that they were unable to produce any thing partaking of common sense, but we incline to our opinion that the obscuration was the result of the natural con fusion of their political ideas. There is only one thing they all agree in and un-dressed by CHARLES BROWN, late Collector derstand, that is the "loaves and fishes." of the Port of Philadelphia, Mr. SAULSBURY A correspondent has, however, saved us and others. who desire to get at the "milk in the cocoa-Passage of the Emancipation Bill in the House.

The Emancipation Bill passed the House finally, on Wednesday, by a strong majority-82 yeas to 54 nays-28 majority. We are indebted to Hon. BORT. MCKNIGHT, for an early copy of the bill, as it passed. It will undoubtedly pass the Senate, and although it is not as strong as some persons desired, if it is faithfully executed, it will be the heaviest blow yet dealt to the rebellion. The Republican County Convention. To nominate Judges, and a County Controller, meets in this city next Monday. The primary meetings take place on Saturday:

here will be a general turn-out at the primary meetings, that the will of the people may be thoroughly expressed. No higher duty can devolve upon a people, than th election of Judges. It ought to be attended to as sacredly as a religious duty.

A resolution was passed in the House o Representatives, on the motion of one of those members, who smell a negro star off, inquir ing if Gen. Banks permitted Africans to ride In the wagon train, while soldiers were com pelled to walk. A correspondent of the Nor York Herald answers the inquiry in advance. Gen. Banks, it appears, permitted a little col ored girl, who had walked thirty miles, to ride on a caission. That was a small founda tion for a Congressional resolve. MCCLELLAN'S PROMISE TO GEN. LER .---
