The Republican County Convention,
To nominate Judges, and a County Controller, meets in this city next Monday. The primary meetings take place to-day, the forman plunged into the country, and the mainstions made by this Convention, will be tantamount to an election, we hope there will be a general turn-out at the primary meetings, that the will of the people may be thoroughly expressed. No, higher duty can devolve upon a people, than the selection of Judges. It ought to be attended to as sacredly as a religious duty.

The Confiscation of the Slaves of Rebels.

The Rouse is and brown to the rebels of the way for the responsibility. A Southern man as I am, born and brought up in the South, or the miles from McCellains' quarters, within sound of their horse-picket—and without the said to cross? (duilety taking precautions against all strprise, strict silence hoseing enjoined upon the prisoners, first on the nominations made by this Convention, will be tantamount to an election, we hope there will be a general turn-out at the primary meetings, that the will of the people may be thoroughly expressed. No, higher duty can devolve upon a people, than the selection of Judges. It ought to be attended to as ascredly as a religious duty.

The Confiscation of the Slaves of Rebels.

The two articles we copy—one an extract from a speech of Gen. Roussean is a slaveholder, and a believer in slavery, but such are his convictions on the subject of the war that he reluctantly admits that slavery is the here are the religion of the control of the control of the same than the religion of the repellation of the subject of the war that he reluctantly admits that slavery is the here are the results of the results of the subject of the way to the control of the rebels of the results of the rebels of the results of the rebels of the resu they refuse to be compelled to work for others without compensation. This spirit is believed to be spreading among the whole slave population in the State. Slavery may thus abolish itself in Maryland, saving trouble and expense. Good.

Treason in Washington.

A letter from Washington says:

The Government is seriously embarrassed by the knowledge which the rebel leaders possess of its most secret plans. No matter what new plan be adopted, the rebels are sure to know of it before the first steps have been taken to carry it into execution. Gen. Ja. Jahnston know of the present the results of the results and our soldiers' asseverations to the conand our soldiers' asseverations to the con-trary, of our words and our acts, they have insisted that our object is to liberate and steal their slaves.

And if we fail to restore the Union "the ore-lasting nigger' will be the cause of the failure. They know what they say is false, yet they never cease repeating it. Behind and before us this has been the cry of the where in the 'families of high officials. It is a notorious fact that the rebellion has some of its most devoted supporters among the aristocratic women of Washington, and some of them are the wives and daughters of loyal men who sustain confidential relations with the Administration. It is thought that this is the avenue by which secret information goes to Richmond. Ordinary spice have no chance of ascertaining the military plans of the Government, in the warmest political supporters of the Administration. Nor are the subordinates of the War Department of the warmest political supporters of the Administration. Nor are the subordinates of the War Department permitted to know anything that would be important information to the rebells. This subject has occupied the attention of the War Department of late, and all leaks are to be stopped if possible.
