THE TAX BILL.

THE TAX SILL.

This bill, so long in the hands of Congress, passed the House to day. As it came from the Committee of Conference, it was called up by the Chairman of the Ways and Means and put at once upon its passage. A desire was expressed by one mortal to have it taken upitem by item, but the previous question was called, and the door for debate closed up. The amiable peace Democracy, the lambility and lavely disciples of Five Points Christianity, voted may.

The Association formed here, which you have already called attention to, is proceeding very favorably. The organization is now so nearly perfected that partial reports are already bed fore it from all the hospitals in and around Washington. Funds flow is from all the people of the State to whom the existence of the Association is known, so that about $1,000 are now available. But already the need of its efforts is manifesting itself in facts. Already the Association has been enabled to some good, and once fairly upon the road, I have no doubt much will be effected. I send you the address of the Finance Committee, endorsed by all the officers of the Association, which I trust you will publish and direct attention to. Undoubtedly Pittsburgh will assist in this good work with her money and her sympathy.

Some persons recently from McClellan's rmy insist that the skirmishes to-day are the beginning of a battle. THE PRESIDENT'S VISIT TO WEST POINT Gen. Butler's Female Proclamation Condemned in England.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.] PHILADELPHIA. May 25,-The President's visit to West Point caused great speculation n New York. The Post says the fact that Sen. Scott is at West Point suggests that he to be consulted on military matters; and the Commercial also thinks the visit is connected with the war movement.

In the British Parliament, as we learn by the Etns. Lord Palmerston, Mr. Gregory and Sir G. C. Lewis all condemned, Gen. Butler's proclamation in regard to New Orleans fe-males. Lord Palmerston thought no man outd read the proclamation without feelings of indignation. It was infamous. He blushed to think Butler belonged to the Anglo Saxon race. Mr. Gregory said the British Government should send a protest, which will no doubt be done.
