

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING-GAZETTE.

That "Confiscated" Revolver.

Some time since we alluded to the fact that Mayor Sawyer had "confiscated" a valuable revolver, the property of a poor Irishman who had been impressed into the rebel service, but who deserted during the raid of Jackson, and came into Gen. Banks' lines, who placed him north. On arriving in this city, he became intoxicated, (and an unusual offense for discharged soldiers) and fell into the hands of our ever vigilant police. He had the pistol in his belt, but it was taken from him and handed over to the Mayor, who sent him to the "lock-up," where he was kept until discharged, being very naturally deformed by his pistol, but the magazine could be loaded, and he had obtained the law against "carrying concealed weapons," and that he was "confiscated" weapon carried in that way.

This gross outrage was noted about by the citizens, and it was not long before we heard of one very respectable and industrious citizen who made a personal appeal to the Mayor in the soldier's behalf, but all to no purpose. The matter was also ventilated in the "Gazette," and the result was a resolution of the public—the act was illegal and tyrannical. By advice, the Mayor sent the revolver to the City Clerk to recover the property, while some friends procured him a passage to Cincinnati, where he had several relatives. On his way, he was met by a man, who, in the course of conversation, told him that he was a member of the "Gazette," and that he was very sorry that he had not been able to do more for him. He then asked the man to call on him at his residence, and he was very glad to comply with the request. He then
