Pittsburgh Female College

The Seventh Annual Catalogue of the Pittsburgh Female College has just been laid open to the public by the President, Rev. I. C. Perh...

Van Amburgh & Co.'s Managerial. This establishment is now in full operation at the Grand Ground, where performances are given, both afternoon and evening, introducing all the trained animals in their extraordinary feats of sagacity.

Decorate Flags, from five inches to fifty feet in length, for the Fourth of July, at the Pittsburgh Flag Manufacturing Co., opposite the Post-Office.

THE GREAT MINERAL TOURS.—It is hoped the public will not be misled in relation to the character of the amusement offered to them in the Mineral Tour.

NEW PIANO FOR SALE.—The Stelway grand piano is equal to the effect of a full orchestra, while the delicate touch of the keys is so arranged that the player can be surprised.

CONCERT HALL.—Carroll & Dixey's excellent troupe of Minors, continue to attract large and fashionable audiences nightly, playing at the Grand Ground, opposite the Post-Office.

THE NINE QUEENS.—This beautiful spectacle in four acts, was produced last night at the theatre in becoming style.

DEATH OF ANOTHER SOLDIER.—A letter from the Hospital, June 27, Henry R. Jones, private in Company G, 62d Regiment, Pennsylvania, who was wounded in the late battle at Gettysburg.

THE NINE QUEENS.—This beautiful spectacle in four acts, was produced last night at the theatre in becoming style.

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE

The Vehicle License Law

Complaints are made that Mayor Sear's is inducing unnecessary annoyance upon butchers and others, growing out of a misapprehension of the law regarding the payment of vehicle license.

The above is very clear, and easily complied with by those who are not supposed to be ignorant of the law.

After waiting patiently until midnight, we were surprised at the reception of the following dispatch:

REBELLION RECORD, PART XIX.—The rebellion record, part XIX, is published in the Pittsburgh Gazette.

ALLEGHENY SCHOOL MATTERS.—A meeting of the Board of Trustees of Allegheny held a meeting last evening at which the salaries of the teachers were discussed.

10,000 Ladies Wanted! At McClellan's Auction Room, No. 55 Fifth Street, to buy the largest and most complete stock of Garters in the city.

SPECIAL NOTICES. FASHIONABLE COLORED AND WHITE SUITS.—We would say that the suits of Messrs. H. H. Jones & Co.

NEW VIOLIN STRINGS, AT MAIL. THE BEST VIOLIN STRINGS, AT MAIL. THE BEST VIOLIN STRINGS, AT MAIL.

NEW ALPHABETIC AMERICAN ALPHABET.—This is a new and improved system of shorthand, and is the only one that can be learned in a few days.

AUCTION SALES. EVERY DESCRIPTION OF REAL ESTATE.—We have for sale a large tract of land in the county of Allegheny.

THE CINCINNATI GAZETTE tells the following story of a Kentucky Quartermaster at Louisville, Ky., who advertised some weeks ago, that he would contract to supply the army with provisions.

PERSONAL.—A dispatch from Columbus states that Secretary Chase is expected to visit the city on the 10th inst.

DEAR SIR.—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th inst.

THE ARREST OF C. C. FITZGERALD

(From the Baltimore American, of Tuesday)

The arrest of Mr. C. C. Fitzg., one of the proprietors and editors of the American, and his commitment to Fort Mifflin, by order of the Secretary of War, having been made public, the publication of the following correspondence in reference thereto becomes necessary.

To this the following reply was received: Washington, June 29, 1862. To C. C. Fitzg., Fort Mifflin.

It is authorized to say that your arrest was not made for the purpose of punishing you, but for the purpose of protecting the public interest.

The statement of dispatch to which exception was taken is the following: published in the New York Herald, June 29, 1862.

FROM WASHINGTON

OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES

(Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette)

WASHINGTON, July 2, 1862. TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM THE GOVERNMENT.

In answer to constantly repeated inquiries why Richmond news is not furnished fully from Washington, it is explained that the government prohibits telegraphing anything unfavorable from here.

The government furnishes no official news, as yet, though communication via boat, down to Fortress Monroe, is uninterrupted.

Congress was exceedingly dull to-day. Mr. Wilkison's introduction of a resolution in relation to the Freedmen's Bureau, was the only business transacted.

The stories that diplomatic opening of the United States to the French minister has been made, and that the French minister has been notified to leave the city, are all false.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The House of Representatives met to-day at 10 o'clock.

THE SENATE. The Senate met to-day at 10 o'clock.

FROM MEMPHIS. Memphis, June 30.—The blockade this week, has been very strict.

FROM CINCINNATI. Cincinnati, July 2.—A special dispatch to-day from Memphis, dated the 30th inst., says that the Confederates have been driven from that city.

FROM NEW YORK. New York, July 2.—A special dispatch to-day from New York, dated the 1st inst., says that the Confederates have been driven from that city.

FROM PHILADELPHIA. Philadelphia, July 2.—A special dispatch to-day from Philadelphia, dated the 1st inst., says that the Confederates have been driven from that city.

FROM BALTIMORE. Baltimore, July 2.—A special dispatch to-day from Baltimore, dated the 1st inst., says that the Confederates have been driven from that city.

CHEERING INTELLIGENCE

(Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette)

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—The latest intelligence received here is contained in the second edition of the Washington Post of last evening. It says that positive and reliable intelligence has just reached Washington, per telegraph from Fort Monroe, announcing that the Confederates have evacuated Richmond.

Mr. Sherman made a forcible speech in favor of his amendment to the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, requiring that a copy of two per cent of the proceeds of the sale of the property of the rebels should be paid to the freedmen.

Garret Davis announced that he should vote against the bill to destroy the State Banks, and that he would vote for the bill to amend the Freedmen's Bureau Bill.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The House of Representatives met to-day at 10 o'clock.

THE SENATE. The Senate met to-day at 10 o'clock.
