

CITY AFFAIRS.

NEW OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS for the week ending July 8, 1862.

Securities of Change. We observe by our exchanges that the want of change for the fractional parts of a dollar is severely felt in other cities as here.

The New Call for Troops. We are glad to learn that Pennsylvania responds promptly to the new call for troops.

The Infants at Wall's Station. Yesterday, we attended the finding of the body of an infant in Turtle Creek, at Wall's Station.

Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment. Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment has opened a recruiting station in this city.

Election of Teachers. The following teachers have been elected for the coming year to the First Ward.

Brigadier General Heron. We learn that our former fellow-citizen Colonel P. J. Heron, late of the Sixth Iowa Regiment, who still and gallantly have earned for him a commission as Brigadier General.

City Mortality. The number of deaths in this city, from July 1st to July 7th, as reported by Dr. A. G. McCandless, physician to the Board of Health.

Deaths. The following deaths were reported: Mrs. J. H. Smith, aged 78; Mrs. M. J. Brown, aged 65.

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.

More Rowdiness—Two Citizens Seized—What are we coming to? Last evening, about eight o'clock, as we learn from a responsible source, three rowdies, whose names are said to be Barry O'Donnell, Killian, and Conroy, committed an unprovoked and aggravated assault and battery upon two respectable citizens, at the corner of Grant and Webster streets.

Dr. L. Oldham, while standing on the steps of his office, near the locality mentioned, observed the three fellows named swaggering along Grant street, as if under the influence of liquor.

The disturbance attracted the attention of a policeman named Linder, who, with his brother, came out of their house near by. One of the leaders cried "watch 'em" "watch 'em" and the other two followed him.

The disturbance was fast assuming the magnitude of a riot and was being watched by a large number of people.

Mr. G. H. Jones, who had been present at the scene, was taken to the hospital.

Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment. Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment has opened a recruiting station in this city.

Election of Teachers. The following teachers have been elected for the coming year to the First Ward.

Brigadier General Heron. We learn that our former fellow-citizen Colonel P. J. Heron, late of the Sixth Iowa Regiment, who still and gallantly have earned for him a commission as Brigadier General.

City Mortality. The number of deaths in this city, from July 1st to July 7th, as reported by Dr. A. G. McCandless, physician to the Board of Health.

THE LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES.

(Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, July 8, 1862. GEN. MITCHELL. It is not true, as currently reported here this evening, that Gen. Mitchell accompanied other distinguished functionaries on a trip down the Potomac.

It is charged by some that the Senate referred the resolution for the expulsion of Mr. Simmons to the Judiciary Committee, to another it, and that there are some others there quite as deep in the mire as Mr. Simmons.

Mr. Morton's Private Secretary returned from McCall's army to-day. The news was that the rebels were in the possession of the whole of the Potomac river, and that the rebels were in the possession of the whole of the Potomac river.

Mr. G. H. Jones, who had been present at the scene, was taken to the hospital.

Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment. Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment has opened a recruiting station in this city.

Election of Teachers. The following teachers have been elected for the coming year to the First Ward.

Brigadier General Heron. We learn that our former fellow-citizen Colonel P. J. Heron, late of the Sixth Iowa Regiment, who still and gallantly have earned for him a commission as Brigadier General.

City Mortality. The number of deaths in this city, from July 1st to July 7th, as reported by Dr. A. G. McCandless, physician to the Board of Health.

Deaths. The following deaths were reported: Mrs. J. H. Smith, aged 78; Mrs. M. J. Brown, aged 65.

THE REBELS DRIVEN BACK.

Rebel Loss in the Recent Battle, 75,000.

(Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.) WASHINGTON, July 8.—A letter to the Editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette, from Gen. Burnside's entire corps in motion.

Further Advance of McClellan. The rebels were driven back in the recent battle, and the loss was estimated at 75,000 men.

Mr. G. H. Jones, who had been present at the scene, was taken to the hospital.

Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment. Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment has opened a recruiting station in this city.

Election of Teachers. The following teachers have been elected for the coming year to the First Ward.

Brigadier General Heron. We learn that our former fellow-citizen Colonel P. J. Heron, late of the Sixth Iowa Regiment, who still and gallantly have earned for him a commission as Brigadier General.

City Mortality. The number of deaths in this city, from July 1st to July 7th, as reported by Dr. A. G. McCandless, physician to the Board of Health.

Deaths. The following deaths were reported: Mrs. J. H. Smith, aged 78; Mrs. M. J. Brown, aged 65.

POPULAR ADVANCING WITH 100,000 MEN.

Further Advance of McClellan.

(Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.) WASHINGTON, July 8.—A letter to the Editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette, from Gen. Burnside's entire corps in motion.

Further Advance of McClellan. The rebels were driven back in the recent battle, and the loss was estimated at 75,000 men.

Mr. G. H. Jones, who had been present at the scene, was taken to the hospital.

Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment. Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment has opened a recruiting station in this city.

Election of Teachers. The following teachers have been elected for the coming year to the First Ward.

Brigadier General Heron. We learn that our former fellow-citizen Colonel P. J. Heron, late of the Sixth Iowa Regiment, who still and gallantly have earned for him a commission as Brigadier General.

City Mortality. The number of deaths in this city, from July 1st to July 7th, as reported by Dr. A. G. McCandless, physician to the Board of Health.

Deaths. The following deaths were reported: Mrs. J. H. Smith, aged 78; Mrs. M. J. Brown, aged 65.

APPROXIMATELY 100,000 MEN.

Further Advance of McClellan.

(Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.) WASHINGTON, July 8.—A letter to the Editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette, from Gen. Burnside's entire corps in motion.

Further Advance of McClellan. The rebels were driven back in the recent battle, and the loss was estimated at 75,000 men.

Mr. G. H. Jones, who had been present at the scene, was taken to the hospital.

Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment. Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment has opened a recruiting station in this city.

Election of Teachers. The following teachers have been elected for the coming year to the First Ward.

Brigadier General Heron. We learn that our former fellow-citizen Colonel P. J. Heron, late of the Sixth Iowa Regiment, who still and gallantly have earned for him a commission as Brigadier General.

City Mortality. The number of deaths in this city, from July 1st to July 7th, as reported by Dr. A. G. McCandless, physician to the Board of Health.

Deaths. The following deaths were reported: Mrs. J. H. Smith, aged 78; Mrs. M. J. Brown, aged 65.

APPROXIMATELY 100,000 MEN.

Further Advance of McClellan.

(Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.) WASHINGTON, July 8.—A letter to the Editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette, from Gen. Burnside's entire corps in motion.

Further Advance of McClellan. The rebels were driven back in the recent battle, and the loss was estimated at 75,000 men.

Mr. G. H. Jones, who had been present at the scene, was taken to the hospital.

Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment. Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment has opened a recruiting station in this city.

Election of Teachers. The following teachers have been elected for the coming year to the First Ward.

Brigadier General Heron. We learn that our former fellow-citizen Colonel P. J. Heron, late of the Sixth Iowa Regiment, who still and gallantly have earned for him a commission as Brigadier General.

City Mortality. The number of deaths in this city, from July 1st to July 7th, as reported by Dr. A. G. McCandless, physician to the Board of Health.

Deaths. The following deaths were reported: Mrs. J. H. Smith, aged 78; Mrs. M. J. Brown, aged 65.

APPROXIMATELY 100,000 MEN.

Further Advance of McClellan.

(Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.) WASHINGTON, July 8.—A letter to the Editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette, from Gen. Burnside's entire corps in motion.

Further Advance of McClellan. The rebels were driven back in the recent battle, and the loss was estimated at 75,000 men.

Mr. G. H. Jones, who had been present at the scene, was taken to the hospital.

Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment. Adjutant General of Co. Murphy's Regiment has opened a recruiting station in this city.

Election of Teachers. The following teachers have been elected for the coming year to the First Ward.

Brigadier General Heron. We learn that our former fellow-citizen Colonel P. J. Heron, late of the Sixth Iowa Regiment, who still and gallantly have earned for him a commission as Brigadier General.

City Mortality. The number of deaths in this city, from July 1st to July 7th, as reported by Dr. A. G. McCandless, physician to the Board of Health.

Deaths. The following deaths were reported: Mrs. J. H. Smith, aged 78; Mrs. M. J. Brown, aged 65.