STOPFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. - METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS for the Gazette, by G. E. Shaw, Optician, No. 55 Pifth orrected dally:

LET IT BE A DEMONSTRATION WORTHY OF

wipe out the disgrace thus inflicted. We must show to traitors abroad and sympathixers at home, that the real sentiment and honest feeling of the people of Pennsylvania are devoted to crushing out rebellion and punishing trait. Here, I say the property of the people of Pennsylvania are devoted in the property of the people of Pennsylvania are devoted in the property of the people of Pennsylvania are devoted in the property of the people of Pennsylvania are devoted in the property of the people of Pennsylvania are devoted in the property of the people of Pennsylvania are devoted in the pennsylvania are devoted in th show to traitors abroad and sympathiers at home, that the real sentiment and honest feeling of the people of Ponusylvania are devoted to crashing out rebellion and punishing traitors, without any regard to what local interest or peculiar institutions must suffer, and that in the prosecution of this war, they will accept no half way measure of conciliation, compromise or delay. The People's Convention which is to assemble in this city on the I7th inst, will have much to do with arranging a contest which must end the business of sympathizing with traitors, a business which is regularly followed, as we follow other trades, for the profits that are derived from such-vocations. What is needed to counteract this influence, is a demonstration on the part of the people, s a demonstration on the part of the people such a demonstration as will place Pennsyl vania where she belongs, namely, on the side of those who are jighting for the Union. In or-der, then, to secure this demonstration, we trust that our friends, the loyal and patrioti men of the State, will meet with the Conven from that is to as emble in this city on the lifth inst., and then, from the capital of the Keystone State, send a greeting word of ani mation and encouragement to our brethren in the field. After the treasonable sympathy for the robel cause, which was put forth by the dough-face Couven ion of the 4th inst., we owe it to the brave men who are fighting the battles of the Union, to assure them that the masses of the people of Pennsylvania have no sympathy for rebellion. We owe such a onstration, too, to the memory of the brave men who have yielded their lives fo Let our friends act upon this suggestion, and let their decision be made in an assemblege in the State Capitol on the 17th inst., such as will establish forever the loyalty of the people of Pennsylvania.-Harriburg Telegraph.

Two Boys Drowned. On Tuesday afternoon, a lad usmed Max well Hunt, aged about four years, was drowned in the Monongabela river, above the dam It appears that ho, in company with some other boys about his age, were playing on a raft, when one of his companions threw his that into the river. As it was but a short distance from the raft, he, in attempting to secure it, fell in and was drowned before assistance uld be rendered. The body was recovered afterward.

Testerday afternoon; a boy named Eckerman, about fourteen years of age, was drowned in the same river, near the Birmingham ridge. He had been bathing, and as is sup-osed, was carried out into deep water. There was no one with him at the time, and his stothes being found on the river bank, was the first intelligence his friends had of the sad

We left this city, June 17, and arrived at Weleft this city, June 17, and arrived at Baltimore the next day, where we were met by Felix R. Branch, Esq., who took us in charge. When we arrived at Fortress Monroe, the Medical Director there wanted more nurses, when Mr. Branch took six of our number, being twenty-oight in all, to stay in the hospitals at Fortress Monroe. They were left in charge of Dr. Walker, of Allegheny City. We arrived at the White House in due time,

We arrived at the White House in due time, and after considerable trouble procured a permit to go to the main army. We arrived at Sarage Station on Monday, June 23d, a few days previous to the retreat. We found plenty of work to do, the wounded being hourly brought in from the field of battle, and all worked laboriously until Sunday, June 29th, when a part of the nurses, and all the surgeons, concluded to accompany the retreating army, in preference to remaining at Savage Station as prisoners. Being myself one of the nurses that left with the army, I am enabled to state that there were plenty of soldiers detailed to nurse the sick and wounded at the Station, consequently we did not does will get well.

James Bi, Dardolop, 103d, regiment, Clintonville Venango county, fever, in hospital eleven weeks here and ar Newsport News, har papers, would like to go diers detailed to nurse the sick and wounded at the Station, consequently we did not deem it proper for us to stay. Bleven out of twenty-two remained, including F. R. Branot, Esq. Among the nurses who remained were Gosling, Miller, Wightman, Brown, Smith and Bryant. All the surgeons left, with one exception, without permission from the surgeon in charge. The nurses who accompanied the nrmy did good execution during the battles fought by the retreating army. I am satisfied the public will not condemn us for leaving Savage Station before the rebels occupied the place, as we have worked hard and endured many hardships and privations while endeavoing to alleviate thesufferings of the wounded soldiers of the late battles.

Wounded and a Prisoner. We learn that Sergeant John S. Hunter this city, a member of Co. C, Col. Jackson's Ninth Reserves, was wounded in a picket skirmish on the 23d of June, and subsequently fell into the hands of the rebels at Savage Station. Co. C. Captain Shannon, and Co. 6, Captain Brannon, and Co. 6, Captain Brannon, and Co. 6, Captain Brookbank, crossed Bot-tom's Bridge, over the Chickshominy, before the battle of Mechanicaville, and drove in the enemy's pickets. The companies divided after crossing the bridge, the right platoon being under command of Captain Shannon, and the left under Lieut. George Pierce, (for-merly conductor of car No. 7 on the Birming-ham Passenger Railway.) The skirmish was quite animated, and our boys succeeded in-accomplishing their object, with no other casualty than the wounding of Sergt. Hunter in the elbow.

If any General is incompetent let the President remove him at once, but he had seen no one incompetent in front of Richmond.

The resolution was then passed—yeas, 39; nays, Messrs. Anthony, Foster, Lane, (Kansas), McDougall, Saulsbury and Wright—6.
On motion of Mr. Wilson, of Mass, a bill amendatory to the act of 1719, calling out militia, etc., was taken up, and the question being to receive negroes into the service for labor in intrenchments, &c.

Mr. Collamor said he should vote against the bill, as it stood, on the ground that it provided for unlimited conscriptions. He said this country, had always decided, in the revolution, and the war of 1812, not in any, way to adopt the system of European conscription, but this bill allows the President to draft men in such numbers and for such time as he pleases, which, in fact, is conscription, but the believed the country had the right to the services of all people, whether black or white.

rices of all people, whether black or white. He knew they used blacks in the last war, and believed they did good service.

Mr. Saulsbury moved to postpone the bill indefinitely. Rejected. Yeas—Carlilo, Davis, Henderson, Kennedy, McDuogall, Powell, Saulsbury, Stark, Wilson, (Mo.)—9. Nays, 17. Mr. Henderson offered an amendment as a new section, that all leyst persons shall be compensated for loss of services by such per-sons as taken by this bill. Agreed to. Yeas, 20; nays, 17.

The first section of this amendment authorises the President to receive persons of African descent in the service of the United States as thus amended was adopted. Adopted.

Mr. Browning moved to strike out the words
