

MR. LONG DENYING THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The traitorous resolutions and speeches of the late Democratic State Convention have caused almost universal surprise.

Mr. Foxworth dissects the Convention, and shows that all the leaders in that agglomeration of political desperadoes are Breckinridge Democrats.

The True Policy in Relation to the Rebellion.

On Wednesday last, during a debate in the Senate, on the subject of enlisting into the army of the United States every man who was willing to fight against the rebellion, without regard to color or lineage, Mr. Fessenden, of Maine, made the following eloquent and eminently sensible and appropriate impromptu remarks, which we commend to the attention of every reader.

Mr. Fessenden (Rep., Me.)—This bill, Sir, is thought to be an object of necessity, and is designed, as I understand it—and we may as well tell the truth about it, for we have nothing to conceal here—merely to give a temporary relief to the Government, and to give a temporary relief to the Government, and to give a temporary relief to the Government.
