A gentleman moved that a Committee be appointed to prepare an address, for publication throughout the county, with a view to stimulating enlistments.

The Chairman remarked that all such business had better be left for the mass meeting, and the motion was withdrawn.

ment of the war, authority has been given to Major Roy Stone, of the First Pennsylvania Major Roy Stone, of the First Pennsylvania Riffes, to proceed to this State, and in the vicinity thereaboute from whence these gallant heroes half, recruit a brigade of Bucktails. There is the material in this State to furnish such a brigade immediately. The mountain and forests which gave us the first regiments of these unerring marksmen, will send forth a brigade without a doubt. Major Stone was in Harrisburg yesterday, on business connected with the recruiting of the proposed brigade.
