are extremely excessive for the services ren-dered, and that we deem the entire bill a gross fraud on the tax-payers of the city—the pro-posed extension being estirely for the benefit of a corporate company and a few individuals, and not in the least advancing the general in-terests of the city. Notwithstanding, we be-lieve the city is legally bound to pay the bill, and to stop further costs in the case, your Committee recommend the passage of the fol-lowing resolution:

RECRUITING.

Advices from all parts of the country in dicate that recruiting every where progresses very slowly, and that general resort to drafting will be necessary, if the new call is to be speedily filled.

To-day's New York Times, in an editorial inlining at the necessity for drafting, says there are towns in New England where fewer recruits have yot been enlisted than thousands of dollars subscribed in the way of bounties.
