of the frame work are preserved. Before the close of Mr. Buchann's administration there was commenced and completed a magnifecent yacht, under the name of revenue cutter, the burden of which was nearly two hundred tons, cost over $50,000. It is represented as being a most sumpluous craft, the ornamentation and furniture of the cabin alone costing over $10,000. When the rebel feet field from New Orleans, the rebel gunboat Jackson came opposite and first several shots through the cutter's sides.
