Pittsburgh Gazette.

THURSDAY MORNING, AUG. 14.

The Democratic Convention.

This body met yesterday at the Court House. It was rather a slim and uninteresting affair. Several districts—wards, boroughs and townships—were unrepresented, and others were represented by persons who presented no credentials, showing that no primary meetings were held in such districts. The character of the ticket nominated shows that it is put up to be defeated, and probably to get out of the way troublesome political aspirants. The Breckinridge influence seems to have ruled the Convention—which, take it altogether, was like the last struggles of a corrupt and expiring organization which had not sufficient vitality to gather up its feet and die decently. When BENTON KERR could be nominated for the State Senate over the head of Hon. WILLIAM WILKINS, it is time the party should give up the ghost.

The resolutions are in the usual style, a mongrel compound of bad grammar, bad English, and want of sense. They are evidently the production of BENTON KERR, although offered by Col. GIBSON. A resolution endorsing EDGAR A. COWAN was ruled out on account of an informality, or it would doubtless have passed. A respectable and patriotic man, like Dr. GROSS, was read out of the party. Dr. GROSS should rejoice. A happy deliverance.

WE stated, yesterday, on authority we considered perfectly reliable, that the troops recruiting here for Gen. SIGEL, were under especial orders of the Secretary of War, and that they would not be counted in the State's quota. Col. ALLEN, who is recruiting the regiment for Gen. SIGEL, informs us that we have been misinformed. He says that he is recruiting under State authority, and that his troops go to form a part of the State's quota, the same as all other volunteers, but that he has the promise when the regiment is turned over to the Government that it shall go to Gen. SIGEL's command. We make this correction with pleasure.

SCALE OF PRICES TO BE ESTABLISHED.—Some special orders have been issued to General McClellan within a few days, instructing him to appoint a military board, to fix a table of prices which the inhabitants may charge for articles furnished to the army. Union men are to be allowed these prices if they bring in the articles. If they refuse, whatever is wanted, is to be seized without payment. The property of secessionists is to be seized in all cases without payment.

SECESSIONISTS IN ILLINOIS.—It is said that the secessionists in Vandalia, Illinois, upon hearing of Morgan's exploits in Kentucky, actually cheered for the Southern Confederacy. In Union county it is said that the secessionists have become highly rampant, and talk of driving the Union men out of the county; also, that a rebel flag was hoisted in one of the towns there, recently, and kept flying all day.

Important Communication.

The following letter from Gen. PORTER will be read with great interest, and will make some folks' ears tingle. Gen. PORTER commands, among other troops, the Pennsylvania Reserves, which has lost a good many officers by resignation, although the General states the resignation of no one officer has been accepted whose services would be of any benefit to the country:

HEADQUARTERS, FIFTH PROVISIONAL ARMY CORPS, } Camp near Harrison's Landing, Va., July 15, 1862. }

GOVERNOR:—Many resignations by officers from Pennsylvania regiments in my corps have been tendered and accepted. Some of these officers will be seeking commissions in new regiments.

In no one case has a resignation been accepted of any officer (that of Colonel Taggart, 12th P. R. V. C., excepted,) whose services in any capacity would be of any benefit to the military arm of the service. I beg, therefore, unless a recommendation be presented to that effect by good authority here, that no one of these officers be re-appointed in the regiments about to be raised, or any old regiments. Some have resigned on account of bad conduct before the enemy, and to avoid exposure. Others are totally demoralized; others again, are worthless, or fear further contact with the enemy.

I ask this of you, now, as acting on my suggestions, will probably prevent mortification to the person appointed and his friends, as all such will be brought before a Board to examine into their proficiency, propriety of conduct, &c., and will resign rather than undergo the investigation.

These remarks apply to medical officers as well as line.

I have the honor to be yours respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
F. J. PORTER,
Brigadier General Commanding.

To His Excellency, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, Pa.

The genuineness of this letter is substantiated as follows:

The Iron-Cased Ships of England.

The following official statement of the strength of England's iron-clad navy is from a late Parliamentary return:

The iron-built vessels in the course of construction and which are to be partially cased, are, twenty-six in number: The Achilles, of 1,250 horse-power; the Agincourt, 1,350; the Minotaur, 1,350; the Northumberland, 1,350; the Hecla, 800, and the Valiant, 800 horse-power. The Prince Albert, of 500 horse-power. The Prince Consort, of 1,000 horse-power, and the Black Prince, of 1,250 horse-power; the Warrior, 1,250, the Defence, 600, and the Resistance, 600 horse-power. The floating batteries wholly cased are the Erebus, the Terror, and the Thunderbolt, each of 200 horse-power. The woodbuilt vessels in course of reconstruction and to be wholly cased are the Caledonian and Ocean, each of 1,000 horse-power; the Royal Alfred and Royal Oak, of 800 each; the Favorite, of 400, and the Enterprise, of 160 horse-power, are to be partially cased. The Royal Sovereign, of 800 horse-power, is to be wholly cased. There is afloat the Prince Consort, of 1,000 horse-power, and the floating batteries are the Etna, of 200 horse-power, and the Glutton, the Thunder and the Trusty, each of 150 horse-power. The Royal Sovereign is to be fitted with Cole's cupola. The estimated speed of the iron vessels building ranges from 14.3 to 11.4 knots an hour, and of the batteries from 5.5 knots per hour. The estimated speed of the wood-built vessels is from 13.4 to 9.50 knots."

A Prize Steamer at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12.—The prize steamer Ladona, captured by the Unadilla while endeavoring to run up Ogeechee river, arrived here to-day.

The Ladona is a valuable iron vessel, with a general cargo from Nassau.

The prize is valued at $400,000.

The Last Moments of Gen. McCook.

The following was his own story of the assassination. While on the road he met a man and asked of him a good place to encamp. The man told him that on the hill beyond was plenty of good water. At the top of the hill a spot was found, and the General immediately commanded the ambulance to be turned about, which was done. A number of shots were fired; eleven of them piercing the vehicle. A rebel horseman came up and asked them to halt. While attempting to obey; he gave the order a second time, and discharged his pistol into the General's side. Captain Burke of the General's Staff implored him to stop firing, as there was a sick man in the vehicle. Another guerrilla came up and was about to fire, but the General told him that it was unnecessary, as he was mortally injured already. He was conveyed to the house, the negro driver running away to save his life.

The people of the house wanted to conceal the General, as the house would be burned if he should die there. But it was not done.

Recognising Captain Burt, of the Ohio 15th, the dying General addressed him: "Andy, (meaning Governor Johnson,) the problem of life will soon be solved for me. Tell Alexander and the rest that I have tried to live as a man, and die attempting to do my duty."

The death struggle now came on. He took the hand of Father Beatty and exclaimed: "I am done with life; yes, this ends it all, you and I part now. But the loss of 10,000 such lives as yours and mine would be nothing if the sacrifice would but save a government such as ours."

The assassination was a deliberate one. The sutler of the Ninth Ohio had overheard the guerrillas as they were arranging it, but had no opportunity to communicate the information.

A little before his decease, Colonel Vandever, of the Thirty-fifth Ohio, drew his will. He bequeathed his property to his mother, and presented his two favorite horses to his brothers Daniel and Alexander.

Yellow Fever in the Gulf.

KEY WEST, August 5.—We learn that the yellow fever is worse than at first reported; some fifteen deaths have already occurred, and quite a number are sick. Among those who have died is Mr. Gates, acting as Deputy Collector of the port. He was a gentleman known to many of us, and much respected and beloved by all his acquaintances; he was ill but four days. The United States steam frigate San Jacinto, Commander Rockendorf, late the flag ship of the Eastern Gulf Squadron, left this port on the 2d inst. for Boston, having the yellow fever on board very badly. She had buried three, and there were, according to report, fourteen cases on board at the time of her sailing. Captain Rogers, of the United States steamer Huntsville, was very ill with the fever, but is to-day reported better.

It is impossible to speculate as to the probable course the disease will take. There are so very many unacclimated persons on the Key, the majority of whom are more or less exposed to the sun, that we may expect to hear of great mortality. That it will be among the troops no one can doubt. All the medical precaution and skill will avail nothing, and if it does they will be decimated. It is most fortunate that the majority of the brigade have been removed, for, had they been here, the mortality would have been frightful.

Terrible Condition of Richmond.

A letter from Fortress Monroe says:

We continue to have reports, through rebel sources, of disease and distress in Richmond. If one-half be true, the condition of that city is little less than that of the plague, which the present almost unprecedented hot weather cannot fail to aggravate. That many have fled is absolutely certain, for considerable numbers have reached Norfolk, where, among the Rebels, the reports referred to are scarcely denied.

Intelligent officers from Richmond direct confirm the opinion expressed by those coming before them, that everything that came under their observation indicated that the city was ripe for a pestilence. Among other things it is represented that in the burying places in and around the city large numbers of dead bodies lie unburied in a state of putrefaction; while in the jails, hospitals and other places where men are confined, dead bodies were suffered to remain in a decayed state. There is also a great scarcity, not only of medicines, but of disinfecting material, as well as the disposition to make use of what they have. A lady recently arrived in Norfolk confirms all previous rumors concerning the sanitary condition of the rebel capitol.

Federal Licenses Due 1st September.

Some of the newspapers are reminding their readers that on the first day of September license money will be due in the sums named below, from the following described persons to the General Government:

Apothecaries	$10	Lawyers	$10
Auctioneers	20	Livery stable keepers	10
Bankers	100	Manufacturers	10
Billiard tables (each)	10	Peddlers, from 5 to	20
Cattle Brokers	10	Photographers	10
Claim agents	10	Pawnbrokers	10
Coal oil distillers	50	Physicians	10
Commercial brokers	50	Retail dealers	10
Confectioners	10	Retail liquor dealers	20
Circuses	100	Surgeons	10
Dentists	10	Tobacconists	10
Eating Houses	10	Soap makers	10
Horse dealers	10	Wholesale dealers	50
Theatres	100	Wholesale dealers in
Tallow chandlers	10	Liquors	100
Jugglers	20

Recifiers, for each license to rectify spirituous liquors, in quantities not exceeding 500 barrels 25
For each additional 500 barrels, or any fraction thereof 25

In addition to this, hotels must pay from $5 to $200 license, and steamers on which passengers are fed and lodged 25

These licenses are annual, and they embrace nearly all industrial and professional interests. Where a person is engaged in more than one he will be required to pay accordingly.

Concerning Bounties.

Bounties should not be paid in any case till men are accepted and in camp. The eagerness to obtain recruits has led to the payment of bounties upon the person enlisting and registering his name, and some, we understand, have been so unprincipled as to enlist in two and three companies, for the sake of the bounty, intending, doubtless, never to go into camp. A man who could be so forgetful of all honor as to enlist in more than one company, from mercenary motives, is capable of any rascality; and the way to head off all such fellows, is to withhold the bounty till they are actually in camp, and inspected, accepted and under drill. We call the attention of all officers to this matter, that the evil, now just developing, may be checked at once.—Cin. Commercial.

FORMATION OF A REGIMENT.—The first regiment of volunteers, under the nine months' call, was formed in Camp Curtin yesterday. It is composed of the following companies:—Russell Guards, Capt. Wm. W. Jennings; Derry Fencibles, Capt. Jas. Henderson; Harrisburg Guards, Capt. Jno. J. Ball; Boas Guards, Capt. H. C. Alleman; Carlisle Infantry, Capt. John Lee; Shippensburg Guards, Capt. James Kelso; Newville Infantry, Capt. Wm. Laughlin; James Guards, Capt. John C. Hoffeaker; Patriotic Club, Capt. John F. Uhrich; Lebanon Guards, Capt. Lorenzo L. Greenawalt.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

P. L. ELY, Esq., of Lockport, reports a scene which he witnessed last Saturday night at Gasport, where he addressed a meeting. He had been urging the men to sign the roll, ank told the women to hurry them up, when a woman rose in the meeting, and addressed her husband substantially as follows: "Ira, you know what you said before you came here to-night—that you would enlist. If you don't do it, go straight home and take off those breeches and let me have them, and I will go myself." This brought down the house, and brought up Ira, who put his name down and became a volunteer.

VOLUNTEERING IN OHIO.—The Cincinnati Gazette, of Tuesday, says:

We publish, this morning, reports of the progress of volunteering in over three-fourths of the counties of this State, condensed from the local papers. It will be seen that from nearly every county the most encouraging accounts are given. If permitted, and granted a few days extra time to do it, there is not the least doubt of Ohio being able to raise the second quota of 300,000 men, without resort to a draft. We trust the opportunity will be given.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

ORDNANCE OFFICE.
WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, August 8th, 1862.

Proposals will be received by this Department until 5 p. m. on the 20th of AUGUST, 1862, for the delivery, at the following Arsenals, of horse equipments, U. S. Cavalry pattern, as hereinafter specified:

At the Watertown Arsenal, Watertown, Massachusetts, 2,000 sets;
At the Watervliet Arsenal, West Troy, New York, 2,000 sets;
At the New York Arsenal, Governor's Island, New York, 10,000 sets;
At the Frankford Arsenal, Bridesburg, Pennsylvania, 5,000 sets;
At the Allegheny Arsenal, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, 10,000 sets;
At the St. Louis Arsenal, St Louis, Missouri, 10,000 sets.

These sets of horse equipments are to be furnished complete, except the horse brush, curry comb, lariat picket pin, link and blanket. Samples can examined at each of the above named Arsenals. They are to be subject to inspection at the Arsenals where delivered, before being received by the Government; none to be accepted or paid for but such as are approved upon such inspection.

Deliveries must be made in lots of not less than fifty sets per week, for all contracts of 500 sets or under; one hundred sets per week for all contracts of from five hundred up to one thousand sets; two hundred sets per week for all contracts of from one thousand to two thousand sets; five hundred sets per week for all contracts of from two thousand to six thousand sets; and eight hundred sets per week for all contracts of from six thousand to ten thousand sets.

Failure to deliver at a specified time will subject the contractor to a forfeiture of the quantity to be delivered at that time. The equipments are to be boxed, five sets in a box, in the customary manner—bits and saddles of assorted numbers; and the contents to be distinctly marked on the upper side of the box. The boxes to be charged at cost, to be determined by the inspector.

Bidders will state, explicitly, in their proposals, the time, quantity and place of each delivery. Each party obtaining a contract will be required to enter into bonds, with proper sureties, for the faithful fulfilment of the same.

Bids of persons who are not manufacturers, or regular dealers in leather work, will not be considered; and the Department reserves to itself the right to reject any or all bids which may be made.

Upon the award being made, successful bidders only, will be notified, and they will be furnished with forms of the contract and of the bond required of them.

Proposals will be addressed to "Gen. J. W. Ripley, Chief of Ordnance, Washington, D. C.," and will be endorsed "Proposals for Horse Equipments."

JAS. W. RIPLEY,
au12:2otd Brig. Gen., Chief of Ordnance.

CHOICE STOCK FOR SALE.—I will at 10 o'clock, at my residence in Chartiers township, Allegheny county, near Oby's Tavern, on the Steubenville Turnpike, 23 head of full blood Durham and Cotswold Sheep. The above stock is composed of some of as good blood as is in the State. Those wishing to improve their stock will do well to attend. Pedigree furnished and terms made known on day of sale.
au12:6otd-daw JOHN HODGSON.

SELLING OUT.—The undersigned, executors of the late Col. Leopold Sall, offer the entire stock of choice WINES and LIQUORS of his estate at the corner of Market and Second streets, Pittsburgh, to the public, at private sale, and at prices so low as to make it an inducement to purchasers. The friends of them an early call. The former chasers. The friends of the establishment are especially invited, and expected to favor the estate with their custom, as this is to be the shortest opportunity to know the superior qualities of the stock kept by the deceased.
