FRIDAY MOBNING, AUG. 15.

The Traitor Vallandigham. The Richmond Enquirer, under date Angust 4th. mentions as important and gratifying news, that "Vallandigham is stumping Ohio against the war and the Administration, addressing immense audiences with great favor and applause '

It is high time such a villian was in lim bo, or driven South among his secesh friends. If the Government expects to suppress rebellion, it should commence with such arch-traitors at home. We call the attention of Mr. Stanton to this fellow Vallandigham, and to Edson B. Olds, also of August 2d : Ohio, who publicly threatens to resist draft ing, even to bloodshed. We cannot understand why such arch-traitors should escane while smaller fry are punished. The Bal-Umore Ameeican, speaking of Vallandigham's Dayton Speech, says : We tell our rulers that to-day there is no

We tell our rulers that to-day there is no worse damper upon the hearts of the truly patriotic in the Border States, than these foul uttorances tolerated elsewhere. It is the hidden oil which keeps the fire of Se-cession blazing in the hearts of the disaf-fected here, and in the disloyal States; which brings the Government into disre-bute, and indefinitely prolongs a deplora-ble condict. And we are sure that we only faithfully picture public sentiment here when we say that the accursed treason ven-tilated in this Dayton speech, would go far to imperil the uiterer's safety had he even attempted it here.

And all this is done under the faires seeming. He is perfectly fercious in his denunciation of abolition, seeking thus to blind the vision of the people, and identify if possible the Government with the guilt of the worst of that faction. He boasts of the worst of that faction. He boasts that as a Representative in Congress, he has "not voted for an army bill, or navy "bill, or appropriation bill for this war;" but felicitates himself in good set terms that he is doing all he can ito prevent the war being successful. The nation has had enough of, such men; and it is sufficient that they are tolerated as the curse of a class when by the bard doal he is the class, weaker but not less deadly in the ha tred of the Union than themselves.

General McClellan is Endorsed and Eulogized by Vallandigham, nation : There is not a man, or a newspaper, i the whole length and breadth of the fre States, sympathizing with secession, and wishing it success, but what is also strongly in favor of Gen. McCLELLAN. This is the fact, patent to everybody. The country must and will judge what the proper infer ence from such a fact is. In speech just made at Dayton, Ohio,

Mr. VALLANDIGHAM, the too well known Congressman from that State, gave yent to his love and admiration for Gen. McCLEL-LAN in the following language, reported in the Dayton Journal As for the armed rebellion of the seces-sionists of the South, I commit that to the

On the 2d inst., General BUTLER enclosed to Secretary STANTON, copies of a corres pondence between himself and General PHELPS, in relation to the military employment of the blacks. BUTLER SBYS :

Gen. Phelps, without orders and without my knowledge, has organized five compan-ies of negroes, and the first official infor-mation I had of his doings in that behalf was a requisition for arms and equipment. "It becomes more necessary, in my judg-
