Contest among Gun Contractors. PHILADELPEIA, Aug. 17.—There has been quite a lively contest here among the private contractors for making Bpriagdeld muskets, is regard to which should be first to deliver a lot of them to the Government. This has been achieved by the Bridesburg Armory. Yesterday one thousand guns were delivered at the United States Arrenal of the most per-fect workmanning, passing a rigid Govern-ment inspection without the refection of a single wespon. The proprietors, Jenks & Mitchell, celebrated the event by raising a day, fring a salte of 34 guns, and other ju-blations, in which the 700 workmen of the ex-tolinhment took part. The arenal is now tirrning out guns at the rate of 100 per day, and with the additions to the machinery now in progress, will scon increase its capacity to 350 per day. The new regiments, forming here are now contesting as to which shall be supplied with Philadelphis guns. The first regiment mustered in will probably obtain the thoursund already delivered...
