all the colored people before him, and has (ordered that thoy shall be shot upon making the least attempt to escape. Secuting parties from Gordonsville report Juckson to have made that point with his en-1 tire arms. His retreat from Cedar Mountain was very precipitate.
Wounded rebel soldiers found on the line of march this morning, all admit great distress in the rebel army. — Triseners and deserters are arriving so fast that our energetic Provost Marshal, Col. Rob-inson, can hardly provide for them. — They say more than 5,000 conscripts left the ranks of Jackson between. Gordonsville and Cedar Mountain, and are straggling through the woods on the line of the march. — The rebel officers told us, are much thinner than our own. Impressing does not assen to swell their numbers. The first opportunity ocourring for desertion, the conscripts all leave. FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE. ----
