Report of a Civilian from Richmond.

[Special Dispatch to the New York Herald.]
POTTRYILLY, Aug. 19.—The following narration was given me by a civilian who arrived from Richmond on the night of Sunday, the 17th instant:

He left Richmond on Wednesday, the 13th traveling to Saxton's Junction, 27 miles north of the city, by private conveyance, and by railroad to Gordensville, and thence on foot to the Potomac.

At the time he left, troops were pouring out of the city, on the Virginia Central, in such numbers that it was impossible for civilians to procure passage. All the troops around Richmond were in motion towards the North, some marching, while others were passing through the cars. from the South. Ede.
