L. for the season, should not fail to visit J. L. Carnaghan's Merchant Tail ring and Glothing Establishment, Federal street, Allegheny city. The fall stock of fabrics suitable for gentlemen's and boys' wear, just opened, is surpassingly slegant, and embrace very variety of goods. The raputation of Mr. Carnaghan as a skillful worsman, and a fasty costumer, is well known, and medatract nothing from the merits of his establishment when we say that even he never had a more slegant stock of goods than at present. Army officers destring first class ragulation uniforms, should not fail to give him a call and araming his stock of military goods. A. GOOD APPOINTMENT .- Captain D. M. Armor, of this city, Captain of company A, 101st regiment Pennsylvania volunteers, ha 101st regiment Fennsylvants volunteers, has been commissioned by the Governor as Major of the regiment, to date from July 1st. Capt. Armor was strongly recommended by Colonel Morris, commanding the regiment, on account of his fine soldierly qualities and gallant conduct at the battle of Fair Oaks. The appointment is a wood one. Address General Thomas, United States Army, was expected at Hartisburg on Thursday, for the purpose of confarying with Goy. Curlin. The onject of the visit of Adjutant General Thomas is especially to hurry forward the troops, which now growd Camp Curtin. Mr. Wm. Speer moyed that all citizens of Manchester, irrespective of party, be required to take the cath of allegiance.

Mr. J. B. Kennedy moved to smend by appointing a Committee of Ten to carry out the instructions of the meeting. The smendment was adopted and passed unanimously.

Mr. Ross moved that the Burgess and Coun-cil constitute a park of said Committee, which

dopted:

Hesolved, That the Committee is hereby in-Adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee is hersby instructed to have all persons who may be guilty of using language calculated to reader aid and comfort to seession, dealt with according to the laws of the Government of the United States.

The meeting then adjourned. Sword Presentation. Capt. R. P. Roberts, of Beaver, was made the recipient of a splendid sword, such and belt, on last Thursday evening, presented by citisens of that place. The meeting was held at the Court House, and was presided over by Judge Agnew. Rev. D. L. Dumpacy made the hadfs; 55 Fifth street:

As the Court House, and was presided over by Judge Agasw. Ber. D. Dumpasy made the presentation speech on behalf of the donor. Capt. Roberts replied in his usual happy and eloquent style. The swerd was one of the finest made, costing with the such and best, about seventy dollars. Never was a compliment, more deservedly paid. Capt. Roberts leaves a large and lucrative practice at the Bar to serve his country. Prevented from going before, from painful sickness in his family, he now cheerfully leaves all for manifold in the such and shows at M. Cielland's.

Francis Adams lies in the intimation that if we do not otherwise succeed in putting down the rebellion we will not hesitate to entist the whole slave population of the South as armed combatants on our side.

Acide from Seward's letter, and the Tribune's interpretation of it, there are other facts that warrant the belief that the Administration has been deliberating on the probable necessity of adopting such a course as would result (unless the rebels speedily laid down their arms and sought for an amnesty) in the most fearful service insurrection the War Department has abandoned the idea of the most fearful service insurrection the War Department has abandoned the idea of the successity of course, will be made under strict regulations, and for a comparatively short period.
