will give him a pull for the laurals and the land. For a number of weeks part of a regiment of rebei cavairy has been roaming about this valley, picking up imgross and horses, and running them off to Jackson's army. Last Batiread, barned up a number of small bridger, burned up a number of small bridger, burned up a number of small bridger, burned up a number of state the mail and a number of prisoners. The morning Captain Russell, of the First Maryland Cavairy, with forty of his men, made a day light dash upon Newtown, the principal resort of the robel cavairy, captured ten of them, with tan horses and a quantity of srms and samunition. The Captain had no man injured. This I consider to be one of the bravest dashes of the war.
