The London Times treats the conscription as a new sot of despotising and thinks involuntary servitude is now the lot of the white race in the United States.

The News and Sar continue to defend the cause of the North.

It is claimed by the Paris Pays that the harvest in France is the best in ten years, and that no corn will be needed from abroad.

It is taid that the Emperor Napoleon has expressed a decided condemnation of Garibald's movements.

In the Turin Gazette, of the 20th of August, Rataxii, in reply to a question by a Senator, declared that the government considered Garibald in a state of rebellion, and the situation of Italy grave.

their native State before an invading Virginia army.

The good people of Washington took the infection. Most of them had been accilimated to the periodical "scare," but, no amount, of reasoning could convince others that the hoofs of Stuart's cavalry would not be rattling over the Avenue before forty-eight hours had clapsed.
