The Emancipation Policy of the President Has been scouled, even by the Union Kentucky Legislature. A Committee has reportd again femancipating their slaves for compensation, in accordance with the recommendation of President Lincoln. Although no legislative action has yet been taken o the subject, there can be no doubt that Kentucky will follow the example of Missouri in her action upon it. We never expected any other result.

Siavery will never let go its hald upon its similar dollar that there has been some victims except by compulsion. We hope the President, now that he has fully tried his scheme, will see its utter hopelessness, and follows: will resort to that other, more just, more will resort to that other, more just, more noble, more honorable plan he has hinted at. Slavery is troubling, now, the Emperor of Brasil. Ho is in great danger of pass-ing through the swfal scenes now enacting on this end of the continent, from the same causes.
