I told him it was a man who had a right to past; he immediately then said, "pass him, of course;", there is can there matter respecting come language; reported to have been used by Lieut. Edde, during the fire-of-which is should like to speak. I was with Lieut. E most of the time, that day; don't recollect any word or expression of his which was improper; we ware together near where the building was burning. A gentleman came to us, and said he had lost two daughters in the fire-I think he gave his name as Donahue; will not be certain about that. He was at the time very considerably intoxicated. He and Lieut E conversed for some considerable time while! Was improper made use of on Lieut. E's. part. I don't know whether it would be proper to give my opinion or hot. But my opinion is that the report is ulterly false, maliciously so. On the syaning of the fire, Lieutanant Edie being present, as ranking officer, had supreme command of all the "sentinels there," Lieut, Myers said, Lieut. Edie would also defire to make a statement about the matter; but the jury declined to hear anything more of it, regarding the statement about the matter; but the jury declined to hear anything more of it, regarding the statement about the matter;
