OUE LOSSES IN THE BATTLE OF ANTIETAM. Brig. Gen. Kimball, of Indiana, in his 29 6-10

oficial report, gives the losses of his brigado, in the battle of Ahtletam, as follows: Killed, Meeting of the Democracy. 121; wounded, 510; missing, 8; total, 639. The Democracy held a mass meeting last evening, in front of the St. Charles Hotel, The Eighth Ohio, as stated in the official reports, went into action with seventeen com-missioned officers and three hundred and but it was rather a tame affair. Mr. Thomas Farley was called to the Chair, and a number twenty-four men. It came out with two I gentleman were designated as Vice Presiofficers, Lieutenants John Lantry and H. F. W. Hughes, Esq., the moving spirit of S. Smith, Wm. Delaney, E. S. Nickerson, the Democracy of the State, was, the first Chas. W. Barnes, E. T. Craig, and Creighton speaker. He dwelt at great and wearisome Thompson, wounded-and with thirty priength upon the "Constitution and the vates killed, one hundred and twenty-two Union," and passed from that subject to the bistory and schlovements of "the bistory and schlovements of "the wounded, and five missing.

Infeating of imposed by opposition parties, accept the robellion-and even this monstrous evil would be finally stayed, upon the ro-es-tablishment of the Democracy in power. Some Iudiorous interruptions occurred, one of which we may note. While Highes was lauding the Democratic party, exhausting his stock of adjectives in preising the meas-imposed in the the party, an Irishman in the sudience sung out-" Well, there may be some truth in what you asy, but Jemmy Buch-anan was no man a dill" A roar of laugh-ter followed this remark, but it was deemed irreveant thus to interrupt the meeting, and the son of Erin was given to understand that if he did not like what was said he had better leave or keep quiet. It is now stated that an attempt to destroy itores, railroad locomotives and cars, at Manassas Junction, during Pope's operations in Centreville, was a failure. The cars and en-gines were so little injured by fire that almost if he did not like what was said he had Detter leave or keep quist. Mr. Rughes got through, by carefully feel-iog his way, and not saying anything very offenire to anybody-and we must here re-mark that, if Brägg or Breekinridge had been present, with their "butternut" crew, they the entire number was got off by the rebels. marx that, if Brägg or Brecklindige had be present, with their "butternut" crew, th would have heard much, very much, to e plaud, and but little to, kinsay or conden Wm. H. Witte, Esq., of Philadelphis, lowed in much the same strain. He told about the Constitution, the sacedans of They got six engines in this way, and large numbers of cars. He alluded to the late arrests in Philadelphis, and in other parts of the country, and became arrest the same strain of the writ of As-beas corpus. Passing to other subjects, Mr. Witto asserted that, among the many other virtues of the Democratic party, she had more men in the army carrying the inapsact, and fower wearing the opaulets, than any other party. This raised a cheer, but we are cer-tain that noither Mr. Witte on this hearers believed what was said—unless he had refor-bance to those in the robei army, as it is freely admitted that Republicans are vory scarce among the "functioniat." Mr. Witte berated the Republicans most roundly for their diaregard of the "constitu-tional right" of the sovering faites, and as-serted that the "irrepressible conflict" doc-tirine, as laid down in the Chicago platform, was the first app towards dimition and secon-sion. This speaker, like Mr. Hyphes, had the size and short-comings of the North ever before his eyes and on his tongue, but he seemed utterly blind to the iniquities of his guondam firends and co-adjators "away down bound in Dirie."
