the many young men of our city who joined it at first, no one perhaps, was more esteemed than young John Dannais, then twenty-two years of age. He left a good situation as book-kooper of the firm of Jones, Boyd & Co., to serve his country, and has laid down his life in the cause he deemed seared, after going through seven or eight bloody batties.
He was in the sorrest battlee before Richmond, and in the battles under Pope, more recently;
and in the last battle at Ball Ban, a bail crushed his thigh bone in sunh a mannar that amputation was deemed unsafe. He lay on the battle-field from Saturday till the next Tuesday, and was then carried to Fairax Eeminary Hospital, where he died last Sanday.
His body was expected home last night.
The death of young Dannais seems more grievous to his many frismds because adaptain' commission awaited him as a reward of gallant and faithful services. But death has given the excellent young soldier a final discharge, and his wars are ended.

Our readers will remember the horrible murder of John Ansley, in Beaver county, some months since. Sheets had traded horse to Ansley, which was afterwards found to have been stoles, and Ansley immediately horse to Ansley, which was afterwards found to have been stolen, and Ansley immediately started in pursuit of Sheets. Nothing more was heard of Ansley, until his dead hody was found several days after, near the road over which he was known to have passed—and it The number of deaths in this city, from Sept. 16th to Sept. 20th, as reported by Dr. A. G. McCandiess, physician to the Board of Health, is as follows :
