GOODMAN Y. COULTEB, South Payette T The Anticipated Invasion of Western People.

The indications of the past few days, point ing to an invasion of Western Virginia, have created much excitement among the people, and as we would not feel very comfortable here, with Stonewall Jackson's army in occu nation of the Panhandle, it becomes us to heed the signs of the times. It is undoubtedly true that rebel troops have been gradually in-creasing in the northwest for some time past until the counties of Jackson, Wirt, Kanawha Braxton and Gilmer, heretofore quiet and-free, are now compled by rebel troops. In connection with this gradual cleaning in from the Kanawha region, we have intelligence that some apprehension is felt that New Creak will be attacked soon by a force of re-bels supposed to be marching over from Mar-linsburg.

Crear win be attacked soon by a force of rebels supposed to be marching over from Martinsburg.

These operations, east and west of the seat of government in Western Virginia, would indicate that there might be some truth in the rebel programme as laid down in the Petersburg Express to exterminate the Baltimore and Ohio road throughout its whole length, including the Northern Branch, and to disposes and capture or drive out the "Pierpoint Government."

The Wheeling Intelligencer says: "Undoubtedly this is the object now of the rebels, and the movements of which we hear daily are but the first beginnings of the grand programme of invading and "rescuing" the Western Virginia country, a la Maryland.
The 'letters' of Charles W. Rensell, Bob.
Johnson and others, resemily came to light, help to indicate this purposs. We all know that secession until intely, almost dead immost of the counties, has recently been timmisted anew, and large bodies of persons have recently gone within the rebel lines and taken up arms. A great-effort has been and is being made to get up a rising, and to advance the standard of rebel rule in this direction.
Within a day or two we have seen a letter captured by Lieut. Col. Harris, of the 10th Virginis, at Beverly, written by a young man goom this town, in which he says that he has Seen assigned to the Western Virginia service, and hopes to be in Wheeling before many weeks. He is confident that the rebels will compy. Wheeling before winter. The father of the young man is a notorious rebel in loar midit, and as it seems from the letter is in full followship, and correspondence with the rebels at Richmond. The istter discloses the full fellowship and correspondence with the repairs at haumond. In stear actions the fact that the robels have frequent communication with each other, and that our would-be in saders are kept posted by their brethren and friends here."

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gasette.

Lournville, Sept. 29.

By both telegraph and express you will receive accounts of the killing of Major General Nelson by Brigadier General Davis. The difficulty between the two officers originated some time siaco, and during the first preparations for the defense of Louisville a serious quarrel took place between them. They were thus prepared for hostilities of a still uglier character at any moment.

On meeting, this morning, in the large bar room of the Louisville Hotel, an altercation immediately took place. I received the following account from Captain Hoblenizally of General McCook's staff, who did not hear the first words uttered. They must have been few in number, however, and probably were of a very prevoking character, as General Nelson seemed at once much enraged, called Davis an insolent, cowardly puppy, and slaverab him in the face. Our Present Danger.

I know there are those in the free Stat injury to the common cause. God help our country in this her last trial! Attacked by traitors in the South, betrayed by ingrates in the North, she now, more than ever, needs the services and support of her children; Will not her many sufferings needs the services and support of her chil-dren. Will not her many sufferings awaken the fire of affection in the hearts of those who have heretofore been deaf to her appeals? A strange nation, in the condition of the free people of this country, would excite the sympathies of these sympathizers with treason. But they are indifferent to the cause of the mother country that bore them, on whose broad breast they have grown rich and great. Out of every act of the Administration to protect and preserve the Government, these wretched partisans fabricate new elements of strife and dis-sension. There is—there must be—a limit to this atrocious treachery in our midst. The people should see to it, or they are lost. If the authors of the rebellion, the advocates of Breckinridge in 1850, and of his treasonable doctrines of 1861, are now per-BINGULAR ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last, as Mrs. Simon Baker, residing near Greensburg, was sitting at an open window, nursing her child, a grain of shot passed through her nose—causing an ugly, but not a serious wound. The shot was discharged from a fowling plees, by a man who had recklessly fired at a partridge "on the wing." Heapstogised for having damaged the lady's nose, and was terribly vexed over the socident.
