Skirmishing commenced on Tacaday last, and there has been more or less fighting every day since. The rebel loss is about 800 killed and 1,500 to 1,800 wounded. We have 1,500 prisoners at Corinth, 300 on the Hatchle river, and more are constantly coming in. We have taken several thousand stand of arms three many by the rebels in their flight. They are mostly new English make. Our loss is be-lieved to be 300 killed and 1,000 wounded. Many of the houses in the torm are badly deneral Ord drove the enemy five miles, over hills and through woods and valleys, the rebels taking advantage of every wood for their infantry and every hill for their artil-lery. The fight lastic seven hours. The rebel General Rogers was killed. General Ord and Veach are slightly wounded. "Prisoners taken say that their effective force in that vicinity was 65,000. WABHRGTON, Oct. 7.—Capt. Job Rüank, of the schooner Stannmas, who arrived here to-day, reports that the rebels had succeeded in placing a battery at Cokpit Point, on the Potome river, and that just before supper yesterday, one of our gunboats ran into ithe Point and shelled the battery, entirely de-stroying it. He thinks that there must have been a considerable quantity of combusible material in the immediate vicinity of the bat-tery, as a large fro was burning nearly all night. The captain of the schooner Eliss Ann Johnson, which arrived this morning, states that he spoke a schooner below Cokpit Foint, which warred him sot to go too near in as the staner Georgia had been find on. He was told that our genboats had run in and shalled the orebal out, satting the place on fro. The captain had heard fring during its alternoon, and as he came up he saw three of our gunboats lying out from the Point, and a large fre burning on ahore. ferred to the Committee on Runss and Arists plias.
