HEADQUARTERS 123D REG'T PERMA. VOLS., } Camp near Sharpsburg, Md., Oct, 5. I wrote you a short letter from this camp.

This required it. I have nothing specially new to communicate to-day. The health of the brigade has improved during the last when, though it is wonderful to me that there is not more sickness among us. There is so much carelessness in casting tained beef out to rot all over the brigade camp, and so many things are left strewed promiscuously over the ground that I cannot but wonder at our general good health. Then the brigade is huddled together as if Maryland were not more than half a, mile square, and as if our superiors feared that we might silp over the edge into some pit of destruction.

On yesterday Father Abraham, from Washington, and Gen. McClellan reviewed about 30,000 troops in this vicinity. I could not say that it was either graind or comfortable. Our division was drawn out in line at 9 a.m., and it was 2 p. m. see these high officials made their apparance, attended by: a donalderable number of other men on horseback. Our brigade and some others had the pleasured of standing on a ploughed feld all this time. Capt. Sigel's corps, relieving Capt. ing to long in the scoreling heat, with their disneriers stomachs. The much landed Gen. McClellan has changed in his spearance on-siderably since he passed through Pittsburgh about a year ago. His rations seem to have given him considerable physical development anout a year ago. His rations seem to have given him considerable physical development to the past year. As for the balance of the escot I have seen as fine a body of men in Allegheny county, on occarions of less supposed moment. The troops cheered enthrat, ashically as the great ones passed by, and some of the boys expressed a wish that the same affliction might never be visited upon

As many will, no doubt, pronounce this a chapter of hard sayings, I will mention one more thing and conclude. This Brigade is composed of the 1234, 131st, and 155th Beginsments Pennsylvania Volunters. No regularly the senior Colonel became acting Brigg. General was appointed over us, consequently the senior Colonel became acting Briggadier, which was right. But here is the joke. My Regiment has a priority in number. The two coprisoning it were inspected and sworn in some seven days; and the Beginsment has formed some five days before, and the state of the Colonel of the 131st.
