Sergeant Robert Mehaffey.

Our correspondent accidentally erred in referring to the lamented Robert Mehaffey, as having fallen in battle at the head of Company A, of the Ninth Regiment of Penna. Reserves. The gallant Sergeant was commanding his own company, C, when he fell. Although wounded severely in a former battle—he refused to go into Hospital—but, with his right arm in a sling, he still fought on, and inasmuch as all the officers of his company, who out-ranked him, had been killed, wounded, or sent sick to the hospital, he was where his dear companions in arms wished to have him—at their head—encouraging them on to victory.

—Since writing the above we have received the following, in reference to the same matter:

Editors Gazette: I observe that your correspondent, "S," writing from Philadelphia, whose letter appears in your issue of Monday, has been led into an error, and while paying a deserved tribute to the lamented Sergeant Mehaffey, has unintentionally done injustice to a brave and meritorious officer of the "Pittsburgh Rifles." Lieut. Reuben M. Long has been in command of Company A, 9th Regiment, Penna. Reserves, (Pittsburgh Rifles) since the battle of South Mountain, where I received the wound which has temporarily separated me from my command. He led the Rifles on the sanguinary field of Antietam, and, throughout the day, displayed the utmost coolness and gallantry. The error of your correspondent, no doubt, arose from the fact that Sergeant Mehaffey was in command of Co. C, of the same regiment, when he received his death-wound.

Yours truly,
CHARLES OWSTON,
Capt. Co. A, 9th Regiment, P. R.

MILITARY MEETING.—The members of Co. B, 15th Regiment Minute Men, met at their armory, on Federal street, Allegheny, last evening, to elect civil officers. The following gentlemen were elected: President, John M. Kirkpatrick; Vice President, William J. Barney; Secretary, Abraham Schoyer; Treasurer, F. A. Mierch.

The company meet for drill this evening, when it is expected that a competent tailor will be present to take the measure of the members for their new uniform.

The meetings of this company are well attended, and the membership is almost full.

COL. SPROTT is busily engaged in organizing the two regiments of cavalry now in Camp Howe, which will be mounted and armed here, by order of the Secretary of War. They are to move at the earliest day possible. No finer body of men has yet gone into the service. One good trait of the Colonel is that he holds each officer strictly accountable for the comfort and good condition of these men. Those who desire to enter the service will consult their own interest by enlisting in the Stanton Cavalry. We understood that the money is now here to pay the men as soon as they are mustered in.

U. P. SYNOD OF PITTSBURGH.—The United Presbyterian Synod of Pittsburgh, erected out of a division of the First Synod of the West, held its first annual session at Indiana, Pa., last week. It was opened with a sermon by Dr. Scroggs. Rev. R. Gracey, D. D., was elected Moderator, and Rev. W. G. Carson Stated Clerk. A sermon on the "State of the Country" was delivered by Rev. W. McElwee.

FIFTY TWENSIX has furnished seventy-one men since her quota, and has credit for one hundred and two men in service. A committee, consisting of Messrs. H. Snowden, M. McClusky and Joseph Hunter, have been appointed to make a still further canvass; (in view of another draft, we presume) and a meeting of citizens will be held this evening, at the school house.

ALL the members of Company C, Fifteenth Regiment, Penna. Militia, having knapsacks, blankets, haversacks, or canteens, are requested to have them at the armory, this evening, without fail.

O. O. PHILLIPS, Captain.

NOTICE.—Owing to the rise in raw material, candles have advanced to 12½ cents per pound, and soap to 6½ cents in this city.

DIED:

SEMPLE—At St. Louis, on Wednesday evening, October 8th, CHARLES S. SEMPLE, formerly of this city, in the 49th year of his age.

The friends of the family are respectfully asked to attend his funeral, from the residence of his father, South Common, Allegheny City, THIS (Thursday) MORNING, at 10 o'clock.

We take great pleasure in recommending the Rev. R. E. Williams, who is engaged as a teacher in the Academy of Science and Languages, Allegheny. Mr. Williams is a graduate of Princeton College, N. J., also of the Western Theological Seminary—is an excellent scholar and a practical and successful instructor. This valuable acquisition to its corps of teachers, and the experience and efficiency of the Principal, Rev. J. Davis, render this institution especially worthy of the patronage of the public.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. C. Sill, No. 246, Penn st., attends to all branches of the Dental profession.

THE complete rout of Price and Van Dorn has evidently alarmed the rebels. The Grenada Appeal of the 9th says the crisis of Mississippi is now upon her. The enemy (federals) emboldened by success, and backed by 50,000 fresh troops now on the line of the Mobile and Ohio railroad, who can be concentrated at one point in sixty hours, will be hurled against them with irresistible force. It further says "if the federals effect a lodgement with her people will be impossible to drive them out. It calls on the State not to trust for safety in the confederate government, but to rally at once every man in the State. In speaking of the condition of the rebel army, the Appeal says, the heart of every patriot will bleed as his eyes pass over the record of its suffering and distress. In Heaven's name, let it not be a record of our shame. In another place it says, "we tremble for our noble troops when we think of the approaching winter."
