Arrest of Ohio Traitors. Considerable excitement was created i Canton, Stark county, Ohio, on Saturday last, by the appearance there of a detachme of troops, sent to arrest several traitors, who had been encouraging resistance to the draft advising the conscripts not to report themelves for duty, etc. The editor of the Demo-cratio paper, named McGreggor, was among the first arrested. Riterel, also a newspaper man of the same politics, was taken into custody. Judge Beiden, learning that they were after Nim, xunosed, as did several others. These "addrs and abstrors" of treason were taken to Camp Mennfield. About seventy of the drafted men, of Stark county, protest that they would sconer stay at home, and a company of volunteers was sent for them: A Brutal Outrage. On Friday last a negro boy about fifteen years of age, named James Patterson, was arrested at Blainsville, and committed for trial by Martin Black, Eq., upon a charge of brutally violating the person of a little white girl names Stadtmiller, daughter of Mr. Geo. Stadtmiller, of Indians county. The offense was committed near the farm of Mr. John Aurents. A gentleman driving along the road heard the grouns of the child, and having proceeded in the direction whence they came, discovered the black scoundral, but was unable to arrest him at the time. The child is but twelve years old. Outrages of this kind are becoming very common, and should be punished to the numest extent of the law.

Shocking Death.

A lad named John Chamberlin, aged thirteen years, and employed in a rolling mill at Youngstows, Ohio, met with a shocking death last week. He was lying, during a temporary
