BATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 8. SUBSTITUTIS .- The Meadville Journal, in Dubaritoria. In a meabylie Survat, in noticing, the departure of the drafted mon for Camp Howe, says : It was not until the Com-missioner sprived in camp, that he learned that drafted men amploying substitutes are not released until the substitutes have passed LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. From Yesterday's Evening Gazette.

From Yesterday's Evening Guastice. The Draited Milisia-Important An-momenement. The military authorities have been greatly paraled as to the best means of disposing of the drafted military. At first, the impression was held out that they would be permitted to form their own company and regimental or-ganizations, as the volunteers have doze, sub-ject of course to the sanction of the Governor. MILITART. Brig. Gon. Schuyler, brother-in-law of Gen. Halleck, arrived in the city, by the noon train to day, and has taken; rooms at the Monongahela House. The General, ject of course to the sanction of the Governor. It It was also stated that they, would be per-mitted to form companies or regiments, where it was at all practicable, of men from the same neighborhood or county, thus rendering their social intercourse more pleasant and ingressifies. These were very natural prom-itess, inamuch as its is hold that, under the law, calling them into service, they are on-titled to exclusive organizations, to the selec-tion of their own officers, and to be entirely independent of the regiments already in the facid. who is accompanied by a portion of his Staff, is on his way West to report to Maj.
