LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

From Saturday's Evening Edition.

The Railroad Suits Against the County—Another Phase of the Proceedings.

This morning, in the United States Circuit Court, before Judge Grier, the matter of the county railroad indebtedness was again brought up. Our readers will remember that, in November, 1861, execution attachments were issued against the County Commissioners, directing them to levy and collect a tax sufficient to meet the payment of certain judgments upon railroad bonds issued by the county. These executions were in the nature of a mandamus, and were upon fifteen cases on which judgments had been obtained on interest coupons on bonds issued to various railroad companies.

It is well known to our readers that the machinery of the county has since been carried on irrespective of these judgments—warrants having been issued as usual for the payment of the ordinary expenses of the county. It is true, the attorneys for the bondholders got several large hauls out of the treasury, and would have taken all the taxes as they were paid in, had an arrangement not been entered into to prevent them.

Then followed the series of interrogatories upon the Commissioners and the Controller—the attorneys for the bondholders being determined not to be beaten or outwitted in any way. The interrogatories, and the answers thereto, have already been published in our columns, and we need not further allude to them here.

This morning, the case came up on the rule to show cause why attachments for contempt should not issue against the Commissioners, for not obeying the mandatory writ of the Court, directing them to cause the judgments in question to be paid. Messrs. Hamilton and Acheson appeared in support of the rule; and Messrs. Carnahan and Geyer for the Commissioners.

Mr. Hamilton, in opening his argument, stated that the Supreme Court had decided upon the validity of these railroad subscriptions, and had ordered writs of mandamus directing the Commissioners to levy and collect a tax for the payment of the interest due. The Commissioners (or some of them) had disobeyed the order, had been fined and imprisoned for contempt, had served out their time of imprisonment, and paid their fines out of the county treasury. [Judge Grier—Paid their fines out of the county treasury? Mr. Hamilton—Yes, sir.] Last fall they levied the tax, designating one portion of it as a "railroad tax," thereby rendering it as odious as possible, and virtually inviting a refusal to pay it. He was informed that, while the taxes for the ordinary expenses of the county were collected, as usual, the duplicates for the collection of the "railroad tax" had never been placed in the hands of the Treasurer. The Commissioners thought themselves safe from the contempt of the Court, by simply levying the tax, and leaving it uncollected. They had also resorted to a scheme, in paying the current funds of the county, by which they thought to escape from the process of the Court, and defraud the creditors of the county out of the fruits of their judgments. The answer or defence of the Commissioners rested on a very shallow contrivance, partly concocted by themselves, and partly by means of some recent legislation obtained for the purpose. He then went on to explain the modus operandi of the "County Warrant Association," and contended that the Commissioners had, in contempt of the process of the Court, aided and maintained that lawless association in defrauding the creditors of the county out of the fruits of their judgments.

Mr. Carnahan opened his argument by stating that the counsel in support of the rule should specify, in writing, the particular act or acts done, which are alleged to bring the Commissioners into contempt. He then went on to explain, from the act of May 1st, 1861, the duties of the Commissioners, the County Treasurer, and the Controller. The Commissioners had levied the tax, and it was the duty of the Treasurer to collect it. The time for voluntary payment of taxes had just expired, and the Treasurer has placed, or will place, duplicates in the hands of the collectors, to collect the arrearages, with a warrant to distrain in case of refusal to pay. The Commissioners had, moreover, issued warrants to the attorneys for the bondholders, amounting in all to some $8,000, duly countersigned by the Controller. It is true, the money had not yet been paid, but the warrants had been receipted for.

Mr. Hamilton explained that the warrants had been receipted for "when paid."

Judge Grier interrupted the counsel, and stated that the county had disgraced itself, not only in the eyes of the State, but in the eyes of the whole world, and we were already pointed at as "repudiators." If he believed that there was a sincere, honest intent on the part of the county officers, to have these judgments paid, and that they were not seeking devices to elude the law, and prevent payment, he would not feel disposed to apply the sharp edge of the law against them, but would be willing to give them to the first of January next, to make provision for the payment of the judgments. But it was his stern duty to enforce the law against those who stand up in rebellion against its provisions, and who treat the mandates of the Court with contempt. If the desire to pay was honest and sincere, he would be disposed to deduct the powers of the Court as far as possible in their favor, but he could not escape from the plain discharge of his duty where the law was contemned.

Mr. Carnahan replied that the answers of the Commissioners to the interrogatories were on file. He believed that they had done all that they could, or all that was required of them, under the law defining their powers. They had assessed 27 mills, for the very purpose of paying these railroad judgments, and he believed the tax would be collected in due time.

Mr. Geyer followed on behalf of the Respondents. He took the ground that the tax, as levied, was a lien upon the property of the tax-payers, and that there was no escaping from its payment. He alluded to the onerous burdens of the tax-payers, and intimated that if the counsel for the bondholders had been as efficient in aiding the city and county in effecting a compromise, as they have been in pressing these claims, the corporations would not be struggling in this quagmire of debt.

Mr. Hamilton followed in a very bitter speech upon repudiation, and alleged that the Commissioners did not intend to have the tax collected or the judgments paid; that they were now in contempt, and would not obey the order of the Court until compelled to do so.

At the conclusion of the argument, Judge Grier intimated that if the Commissioners could satisfy the Court that they had an honest and sincere desire and intention to comply with the law, he would grant them all the indulgence possible, but otherwise he would be compelled to deal with them differently.

The Court held the matter under consideration for the present.

Rules against the County Controller and County Treasurer, of a similar nature, are also pending, but they were passed over for the present, and will come up towards the close of the ensuing week.

TWO BOYS KILLED.—On Tuesday evening last, a company of young men from Newtown and vicinity, Whiteley township, Greene county, were out on a hunting expedition. Having treed a raccoon, as they supposed, they set to work to fell the tree, which, in falling, caught a poplar tree, springing it down forcibly, and then suddenly rebounding its hold, the poplar reacted with such force as to break its trunk, and it crashed down in the midst of the eager and unsuspecting boys, killing Wm. Chalfant and Franklin Johns, aged nineteen and thirteen years respectively, and wounding Marion Colbert.

LARCENY OF A POCKET BOOK.—Two boys, named Finley Barker and Henry Hall, yesterday grabbed up a pocket book in the Allegheny market, and ran off with it, while the owner, a German named Jenni, was in the act of purchasing some marketing. He had laid the book down on a stall to arrange his basket, when one of the little rascals made way with it. It contained about $60, half of which was in gold. During the day they purchased a lot of clothing with the stolen money. Barker was arrested, but Hall managed to escape. He will probably be arrested to-day.

CONVICTED OF RAPE.—The colored man, Reuben and David Long, recently tried in Greensburg, for having ravished a respectable married lady residing in Westmoreland county, have been convicted. The defendants are brothers, and have heretofore maintained a fair reputation. The punishment for rape is imprisonment in the penitentiary for the period of not less than one nor more than ten years.

Supreme Court.

FRIDAY, NOV. 14.—Present; Chief Justice Lowrie, and Justices Woodward, Strong and Read.

The Philadelphia Sheriffalty case was taken up, on the motion to quash the writ of certiorari to the Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia. Messrs. Brewster and Gilpin, for defendants, made a motion to quash the writ, as improvidently issued, no allocatur having been obtained. The respondents made no appearance, and thereupon the following decree was made:

Ewing vs. Tilley, Nov. 15th, 1862. Pursuant to an order of this Court, made Nov. 1st, 1862, the counsel for the defendant in error move the Court to quash the certiorari, as having been improvidently issued, without cause shown, unless the plaintiff in error shall now show sufficient cause; and it now being shown to the Court by affidavits that the plaintiff has had due notice of the said intended motion according to the said order, and the said plaintiff in error not appearing by himself or his counsel, it is ordered that the certiorari be quashed, and the record remitted.

Ewing vs. Thompson. In Equity. Motion by Messrs. Brewster and Gilpin to dissolve the preliminary injunction heretofore granted. No appearance contra. Proof filed of service of notice of this motion, on Wm. T. Hirst, attorney for plaintiff, on the 4th of November, 1862. The writ of special injunction is dissolved.

Adjourned till Monday, when the cases for Beaver, Butler, Lawrence, Venango, Clarion, Elk, Jefferson and Forest will be called.

SHOCKING DEATH.—Mr. Henry Davis, an old resident of Greene county, jumped from a carriage, a few days since, while the horses were running off, and being very heavy man, his leg was broken entirely off, at or near the ankle joint—the bone protruding and entering the ground. He suffered the most intense pain, and died in one week after the accident.

NATIONAL BANK NOTE REPORTER.—Messrs. Feld & Lare, the publishers, send us the current number of their National Bank Note Reporter, an invaluable work. It gives a fac simile of a worthless bank note, the plate for which is being constantly altered to represent the issues of many good banks. It may save the price of a year's subscription to-day.

FOUNDRY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—The old foundry building, formerly occupied by Messrs. Nicholson and Payne, and located on the Second street road, caught fire last night, and was totally destroyed. It was a large brick building, but had not been used for several years. It is not known how the fire occurred.

LARCENY OF HARNESS.—Last evening, soon after dark, some bold thief entered the stable of Mr. Charles Arbuthnot, Second ward, Allegheny, and stole therefrom a set of common harness, a rug, and a pair of spurs. Information has been made before Mayor Alexander, and an effort will be made to arrest the thief.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Last night, about nine o'clock, a stock train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, going east, ran off the track near Gallitzin, smashing up the cars, and killing a number of cattle. There was no person injured. The trains were considerably delayed in consequence of the accident.

HAS RECEIVED HIS BOOKS.—Jos. A. Butler, who was appointed a few weeks since by the Finance Committee of Councils to collect the taxes due the city by tax-payers of the Sixth Ward, has received his books, and is now ready to receive business, water and all city taxes due by delinquents.

NEW COUNTERFEIT.—Feld & Lare, of the National Bank Note Reporter, report how two dollar imitated notes on the Union Bank, Delaware, viz. (on upper right end) two females seated beside iron safe; farmer boy and dog on lower left end. Engraving very coarse.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

[Reported specially for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

Exchange on New York and Philadelphia is abundant, and the selling rate is ¼ per cent premium. Exchange on Cincinnati is at par. Our bankers are paying 20 per cent premium for Silver, 23c for Gold and 22c for U. S. Demand Notes.

The general market has been rather quiet to-day, and the transactions in most of the leading articles have been limited, and of an unimportant character. There is again considerable excitement in Crude and Refined Oil and another important advance has been established on the latter.

GRAIN—There is no change in wheat and we continue to quote Red at $1,15 from wagon, and $1,20 for White. Barley is less active and the receipts have fallen off considerably; we continue to quote prime Spring and Fall at $1,22. Corn is very firm and a shade higher. No sales were reported but holders were asking 68 to 70c to arrive. Rye is in active demand and sells readily from first hands at 75c. Oats quiet at 50 to 55c for new and old from store.

GROCERIES—There is but little inquiry for groceries, though the market is firm and prices is firm and fully maintained. We quote Sugar at 10¾ to 12c; Molasses 55 to 58c and Coffee 32@33c.

PROVISIONS—The demand for bacon continues very light though prices generally remain about as before. Prime Country Lard is selling at 9½c and City Leaf 10½c. There is more firmness in Mess Pork and holders do not seem disposed to sell unless at an advance.

OILS.—We have to notice an active demand for Refined Oil and another advance has been established. The selling rates to-day for good white oil were 50c in bond and 60c, free, $2,00 extra for package; a sale of 300 bbls in bond was reported at 55c, including package. Crude, also, is in active request and the supply in market is almost exhausted; a sale of 102 bbls was made at 22c, and $2,00 for package. Holders generally were asking 23c.

SEEDS—Sale of 120 bush Flax at $5,25—a decline. Clover is held at $5,75 from store, and Timothy $1,75.

BUTTER & EGGS—There is a good demand for Packed Butter at 12@13c; Prime Roll sells readily at 18c. Eggs may be quoted at 15@16c.

CHEESE—Sale of 50 boxes prime selected W. R. at 12c.

APPLES—In good supply but unchanged; sales in lots of 140 bbls at from $1,75 to $2,25 per bbl.

NEW YORK BOOT AND SHOE MARKET.—There continues to be a very active fall trade considering the lateness of the season; desirable stocks are in brisk demand with buyers from various sections of the country and are held at firm prices; the supply of some descriptions of heavy wear is confined to a narrow compass, and our merchants are looking about for specials their reduced assortment with the kind and quality most desired by purchasers. The State and the near-by trade have been quite busy and the week's review and have made large sales to buyers from Pennsylvania, New Jersey and the interior of the State; while the orders from the West and south-west for the general trade have been steady and help to swell the aggregate sales, which will compare favorably with the business done for some time previous. Our manufacturers have, in most cases, made a satisfactory arrangement with their workmen, and their business is again progressing with renewed activity as their orders come in quite freely much faster in fact than their present facilities and number of journeymen can supply.—Shoe and Leather Reporter.

CINCINNATI MARKET, Nov. 14, p. m.—There was a fair demand for Winter Extras at the opening, and in some cases an advance of 5c per bbl was paid, but subsequently the close was dull, and prices were easier. Spring wheat brands were quiet and unchanged.

Wheat was quiet and steady, but closed easier. Sales were made at 94¾@94c for No. 1 Spring; 78@79c for No. 2 Spring; 91@91½c for Rejected Red and 67@68c for Rejected Spring.

There was a firm feeling for Corn at the opening, and sales were made at an improvement of ¼@1c; but at the close the market felt back and was less active. Spring wheat brands were quiet and unchanged.

Oats were in active request for shipment to Cincinnati and St. Louis, and prices advanced ¼@1c. Sales of No. 1 at 34½@35c, and Rejected at 33c in store.

Barley was in active local and shipping demand at prices ranging from 85c to $1,12 for common to good samples.

Provisions were quiet with sales of Country Mess Pork at $13,25; Smoked Shoulders at 5¾c packed; Short Hams, 10 days in salt at 6c loose, and City Lard at 8½c. Beef Cattle continue from the Ohio and are active at a decline of 5@10c. Sales range from $2,15@3,25.

PETROLEUM AT PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—There is no falling off in the demand for Petroleum, but supplies also continue lots from 100 to 1,000 barrels free aboard ship, or sell Bills Lading of different sized lots on Liverpool, Glasgow, Frankfort-on-the-Main, and other European ports. REESE & GRAFF,
se27 Petrolite Oil Works, Pittsburgh, Pa

ELEVATORS IN CINCINNATI.—The first elevator ever erected in Cincinnati has just been completed by Foulds & Wright, on the Whitewater canal near the Hamilton and Dayton depot. The building is 100 feet long by 40 wide. It has thirty bins, and will store about 125,000 bushels. There are to be two sets of elevators, so that two cars can be unloaded at the same time in the building.

STONE.—The Philadelphia Price Current says:

There is an active demand for Cloverseed at the decline noted last week. Sales of 5,000 bushels at $6@6,25 @ 64 lbs for fair and prime lots; 1,500 bushels choice at $6,62½; about 100 tons were disposed of from second hands—re-cleansed, for exportation—at about 10c @ lb, part for shipment direct and part from New York. About 300 bushels Timothy sold at $1,50@1,62½ for inferior, and $2@2,25 for strictly prime lots. Red Top is held at $2,50 @ sack. There is some increase in the receipts of Flaxseed, and it is in demand for crushing, but at a decline. Sales of 500 bushels at $2,56@2,75 @ bushel.

VALUABLE COAL PROPERTY FOR SALE.—150 ACRES OF COAL PRIVILEGE, adjoining the town of Steubenville, Jefferson county, Ohio. The Steubenville Coal and Coke has been fairly tested at the Belmont Furnace, at Martinsville, Ohio, nearly opposite Wheeling, where full information may be had of its qualities for smelting iron ore. This Coal and Coke proves to be the best for smelting purposes of any west of the mountains. The iron can be made for less money at Steubenville than at any point west of the mountains. The important fact is, the receiving and shipping of all materials without hauling. This property is finely located, lying one-third of a mile upon the Ohio river, and the Wheeling extension of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad running the whole length of said coal field. Also, the Pan-Handle (so called) Railroad crosses the other railroad upon this property. Coal can be dropped from the pit cars upon the railroad, or upon boats in the Ohio river, or into the top of a furnace, without second handling. There is a large body of coal adjoining the above tract that can be secured if required. The following are prices that iron ore has been offered and sold for, furnished by persons conversant with the business, and may be relied upon: 15,000 tons of native ore could have been contracted for, delivered at the furnace, burned ready for use, 50 per cent. ore, at $3 per ton; Lake Superior iron ore has been bought at Cleveland for $5 per ton, freight from that point to Steubenville $1 57;—cost, dropped at the furnace, $6 57; Lake Champlain and Missouri Iron Mountain ore about the same. There is an abundance of fire clay, limestone and sandstone upon it, and in the vicinity. The present rates for all materials cost more now; take the next. Any person wishing to make an investment will please call upon WM. C. ABRAHAM, at Steubenville, who will be ready to show the premises and explain its advantages; or upon the undersigned, at No. 112 Fourth street, Pittsburgh.

SUPERIOR BUILDING LOTS FOR SALE.—The undersigned offers for sale, on reasonable terms, some of the choicest spots for building purposes that are to be found around Pittsburgh. They are situated within one hundred yards of the terminus of the Centre Avenue Horse Railway, and are beautiful locations for private dwellings. The scenery and everything connected is extremely desirable for any one wanting to locate outside of the city limits, and at the same time so near are they that communication can be had with the city at all hours. Lots from one-fourth of an acre upwards.
Also, some Western Lands, situated in Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin.
Also, several small lots in Minersville, 50x250 feet. The above property will be sold on accommodating terms. Inquire of
