Wattenton has been tarted visited by the National army. Once by Gen. McDpwell, once by Gen. Pope, and once by Gen. McClel-lan. It has so happened that I have been here with all these Generals, and have had the temper of the citizens on each comaion. Upon my first visit badies slammed the doors in my face and turned out in the street to avoid me; little children, too, sang Robel songs on the walks, and young misses bounded Dixle from cracked plane-fortes. Change of Feeling in Southern Kentucky.

Our readers will remember the accounts of rampant secession feeling which continually came to us from Southern Kentucky, all through last year. The following extract from a recent letter written by a correspondent of the Cincinnati Gasette, from Simpson county in that section of the State, shows what a change has taken place:

I perceive a great change in the sentiment

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 20.

This movement is of another sort. Gen. Burnaide originates it, and his heart is init. It means rapid marching it means change of base to a more direct, more defensible line. With the army in three columns, led by "Giorious Joe Hooker," Sunner, started in the guise of a poor days in the interior, and in a letter, too long for our space, gives the result of his observations and disperience.

He found the people well supplied with corn, as supply of basoon which they said would list a year, plenty of live hogs, but little or no sait. The boldiers he saw were generally well clad and shod. The women aré doing all they can to supply them with stockings, underclothing, &c. They are more excited than

Naw York, Nov. 19.—The Herald has the following:
Norfolk, Va., Nov. 17.—The work of raising the sunken war vessels of the Government is rapidly and successfully progressing.
A few days since the frigate United States was raised, pumped out, and towed to the Gosport Navy Yard by the contractor, Mr. Thomas B. Wells, of Boston. A large tope-of divers and machinery are now employed upon the work, and preparations are making to raise the sloop-of-war Cumberiand and that frigata Congress, sunk at the anirance to the James river. Operations are in progress for raising the line-of-battle ships Detaware and Columbus, which are empetted to be raised whole, and made again available for secretice.
