THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 20.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

From Yesterday's Evening Gazette.

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of this company was held on Monday last, when the following directors were elected:

John Hopkins, Samuel W. Smith, Francis Burns, Wm. A. Hack, John Spear Nicholas, John Gregg, C. Oliver O'Donnell, Jas. Harvey, Wm. Heald, Galloway Cheston, Wm. W. Taylor, Samuel Kirby.

The only change was the election of Sam'l Kirby, Esq., in the place of Col. R. H. Miles, who, recently, resigned his position in the board.

In making his annual report, the President of the Company, J. W. Garrett, Esq., alludes to the great and repeated destruction of the works and property of the company, by the rebels, which has precluded the President and Directors from making that satisfactory report of the condition of the road, as was desirable. Much effort has been made to close the business of 1861, but a large arrearage of services for the Government still remains unsettled, and as soon as the revenue accounts can be adjusted, a full report will be submitted to the stockholders. We quote from the report:

"During its protracted embarrassments and losses, the Company has energetically maintained a most careful and economical system of management, which, in combination with its strong financial position at the commencement of its difficulties, has enabled it to meet promptly all its engagements, and to maintain its credit and the character of its securities at the highest standard.

"Whenever protection has been afforded, the company has with marked rapidity reopened its route. The entire road was restored and worked from April 1st to May 29th, and from June 9th to 5th September last.

"As indicating the vast uses and necessity to the country of this leading avenue of commerce from the valley of the Ohio to the seaboard, it is interesting to state that, upon the reopening of the road, the Company announced a large reduction of the rates of transportation from western to eastern cities, and notwithstanding these lessened rates as compared with those charged by the other Atlantic lines during the blockade of the Baltimore and Ohio road, the revenue of the Company for the months of July and August is estimated to have exceeded $1,200,000, being the largest sum earned by the Company, for the same length of time, since the construction of the road to the Ohio river.

"In consequence of its ability to thus work for a portion of the year, over its entire line, the Company was enabled to pay its usual semi-annual dividends. And it is further satisfactory to state, on behalf of the board, that it has also fully maintained the sinking fund established for the extinguishment of its funded debt. The success of that system continues to be demonstrated—the sinking funds having been increased from $1,356,371 35 on the 30th of September, 1860, to $1,847,554 71 on the 30th September, 1862, exhibiting the gain for two years of $491,183 36.

"These results have been realized without any payment by the government for the losses and immense and repeated destruction of the property of the company.

"The board having determined to replace the numerous wood and iron and wooden bridges which have been destroyed in the progress of the war with iron structures of the most substantial and improved description, the material was promptly secured, and a considerable portion of the work has been successfully accomplished in the shops of the company."

Affixing and Canceling Stamps.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has made the following important decision concerning the affixing and canceling of stamps:

Section 94 of the Excise Law requires that on and after the 1st day of October, certain stamp duties shall be collected on all instruments, matters and things as describable in schedule marked B.

Section 95 provides that if any person or persons shall make, sign, or issue, or cause to be made, signed or issued, any instrument, document, or paper of any kind or description whatsoever, without the same being duly stamped for denoting the duty imposed thereon, or without having thereupon an adhesive stamp to denote said duty, such person or persons shall incur a penalty of $50, and such instrument, document, or paper shall be deemed invalid and of no effect. It seems to me perfectly clear that by the provisions of section 95 the person who makes, signs, and issues the instrument is the only person who is authorised to affix the stamp required by law, and the person who makes, signs, and issues, etc., without affixing the stamp, incurs the penalty as aforesaid, and is liable to prosecution therefor, and the instrument or document is invalid in consequence of such neglect.

Section 99 provides that the person using or affixing the stamp shall write thereupon the initials of his name, date, &c. Other portions of the law impose penalties upon persons who receive documents or articles subject to stamp duty from the person who makes, signs and issues them without being duly stamped, &c.

I am, therefore, of the opinion that a faithful compliance with the requirements of the provisions of the Excise law demands,

First—That all papers subject to stamp tax shall have the stamp affixed before the same is issued.

Second—That the stamp so affixed must be canceled in the manner prescribed by the party making, signing or issuing; in other words, executing the instrument, document or paper.

Hence, the receiving of a non-stamped paper is a violation of the law. The attaching and canceling of a stamp on a document so received is also unlawful, and the cancellation of a stamp on a paper otherwise lawfully issued by other than the party executing the paper to which the stamp is affixed is equally improper.

The only exception that exists in the law to the above ruling is in the case of a bill of exchange, or order for the payment of any sum of money drawn or purporting to be drawn in any foreign country, but payable in the United States, in which the acceptor or acceptors shall, before paying or accepting the same, place thereupon a stamp indicating the duty upon the same, as provided by section 101 of the Excise law.

The Highest Price Yet Paid for Cotton.

The late auction sale of cotton brought to Philadelphia in the prize schooner Josephine, created quite a sensation among cotton dealers. Before the sale was commenced, the conversation turned upon the highest price the cotton would be likely to bring. It being Upland, of medium quality, similar to what brought at private sale in New York on Saturday, 65 cents the pound, the highest sum realized up to that time. It was generally supposed that 65 or 66 cents the pound would be the maximum price for it. Mr. Cook, the auctioneer, announced in opening the sale, that the terms were cash, payable in Treasury notes, the cotton to be sold free of Government tax. The first bid was 60 cents the pound, for ten bales, with the privilege of taking the whole lot. The bidding, at an increase of half a cent the pound, was kept up until the hammer fell at 68 cents, at which sum Messrs. Crozier & Son took ten bales. The next start was at 65 cents, and as before, the hammer fell at 68 cents, Crozier & Son being the buyers. This time they took one hundred and fifty bales. The next time of the renewal of the sale 66 cents was first bid, and the maximum reached was 67¾ cents; Crozier & Son were again the buyers, taking fifty bales. Mr. Turner was the next highest bidder, at 67½ cents. Mr. Robert Stein bid up on the next lot to 67 cents and took fifty bales, and the balance was sold to Crozier & Son for 67¼ cents. The lowest price obtained was one cent per pound above the highest realized in New York, and the highest was two cents above it. A small quantity of loose cotton, in bags, sold for 50 cents the pound, and a lot of damaged cotton sold for 17 cents the pound.

TAKEN PRISONER.—D. H. Douthett, a Sergeant in Co. H, 102d regiment Penn's vols., while returning to his regiment, was taken prisoner by a squad of rebels between Downsville and Williamsport, near the river. He had several pairs of boots with him for the company, which the rebels took. Captain M'Laughlin, of Co. H, who has been at home unwell for some time, will start for camp in a few days.

CAVALRY ORDERED TO HARRISBURG.—Five companies of unattached cavalry have been ordered from camp here to Harrisburg, three of which have already left.

The Hayno Homicide.

At nine o'clock Wednesday morning, the trial of Randolph Well, for the murder of Charles Hayno, was resumed.

Messrs. Bailey and Marshall, for the defense, made their arguments to the jury, taking the broad ground that the prisoner slew the deceased in self-defense, and from necessity, to save his own life, and hence that the homicide was justifiable. These premises being accepted as true, then the prisoner would be entitled to a verdict of acquittal.

District Attorney Miller summed up the case for the Commonwealth, directing the greater part of his argument to disprove the ground taken by the defendant's counsel, that the killing was justifiable. A verdict of acquittal would necessitate the jury in finding that the prisoner did right in killing Hayno, and was not simply justified under the law. He thought that the very best concession which the Commonwealth could make, was to view the offence as manslaughter—to lay aside the facts and circumstances tending to prove that Well was guilty of murder in the second degree, and take it for granted that he acted in the heat of blood during the whole difficulty.

At the conclusion of Mr. Miller's argument, Court adjourned until two o'clock.

Supreme Court.

Toby township vs. Madison township. Clarion. Argued by Lamberton for Toby township, and by Corbett contra.

Black vs. Evans. Jefferson. Writ of error quashed, no judgment having been entered below.

Lucas vs. Evans. Jefferson. Argued by Gordon for plaintiff in error, and W. P. Jenks contra.

Graff's Ex'r. vs. Kelly's Ex'r. Butler. Argued by Bredin for plaintiff in error, and Purviance contra.

Expensive.

Some idea may be formed of the expense attending the trial of homicide cases, when we state that the single item of feeding the jurors in the Lowrie case sums up $196,00. They were lodged at the Monongahela House, until the charge of the Court was delivered, and were furnished with meals from that hotel during the sixty-seven hours that they spent in deliberating on a verdict. The bill was two dollars per day, for seven days, for the twelve jurors and the two tipstaves who attended them.

The bill rendered in the Keenan case is $84. The jury was not so long together, and hence the difference. This is expensive, but infinitely preferable to the old system of "starving."

United States Circuit Court.

This Court, Judge Grier presiding, is engaged to-day in the trial of the case of M. McGunnigle vs. James Old, being an action for an infringement of patent for a bee-hive. Mr. Langstreth, perhaps the most experienced and successful bee-master in the country, was examined as a witness, and entertained the Court, jury and spectators, for a considerable time, in describing the construction of the hives produced in Court, and explaining some of the habits of the wonderful little insect, the study of which has absorbed his time and talents for so many years. The case is still on trial.

A WARNING TO BOYS.—The boys of Baltimore, like those of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, have of late been indulging in stone-battles. On Sunday last, while one of these battles was raging, a lad named Isaac M. Kelly drew a pistol and fired into the opposing crowd, shooting Henry Fleisher in the head and killing him instantly. The murdered boy was only twelve years old, while the murderer was seventeen, and the son of a widowed mother. The pistol was stolen by a boy named Kennedy, from his father, and afterwards loaned to Kelly. Kelly is now in jail awaiting his trial.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—A bold attempt was made, about midnight on Monday, to enter the residence of Mr. Thomas Murray, on Fulton street, near Franklin. The burglar attempted to effect an entrance by climbing to the roof of a portico in the rear of the house, and lifting one of the second story windows. He was about entering when Mrs. Murray, aroused by the noise, gave an alarm which caused the instant flight of the rascal. Mr. Murray is a steamboat pilot, and is now absent on the river.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH DAILY GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, Nov. 19, 1862.

Eastern Exchange is still in good supply and is selling at ¼ per cent premium. Our bankers continue to pay 20c premium for Silver, 23c for U. S. Demand Notes and 28c for Gold.

The general market has been quiet to-day, owing to the wet and disagreeable condition of the weather. We have no changes to notice with the exception of another advance in Refined Oil.

GRAIN—Wheat remains unchanged at $1,15 for Red from first hands and $1,20 for White. Corn is selling from 68@70c for prime. Barley is steady at $1,22 for prime Spring and Fall from wagon. Oats we continue to quote at 50 to 55c for new and old from store. Rye is in active demand at 70 to 75c.

GROCERIES—Remain quiet but unchanged. Sugar is selling at from 1 0¼ to 11¼; Coffee 32@33c and Molasses 52@58c. Sale of 10 bbls Crushed and granulated Sugar at 14½c.

FLOUR—The market for Flour is quiet, the demand being light and entirely local. We note small sales of Family at $6,50@6,75. Rye is selling at $5,00 per bbl and Buckwheat in sacks at $4,50 per 100 lbs.

OILS—We have to note another advance in Refined Oil, the asking rates to-day being 70c in bond, and 80c free, including packages; a sale of 1,000 bbls, free, was made on Tuesday evening at 75c including packages. A dispatch was received from New York, to the effect that Refined had advanced to $1,00 in that city. We could hear of no operations in Crude. What little is in market, however, is held firmly at from 25 to 28c. Sale of 10 bbls No. 1 Lard Oil at 90c.

PROVISIONS—There is nothing doing in bacon, and prices remain unchanged. We note sales in lots of 50 bbls Mess Pork at $12 per bbl. Country Lard is selling at 9½c and City Leaf at 10½c.

SEEDS—Is unchanged; sale of 50 sacks Liverpool at $2,75 for coarse and $3,00 for fine; and 125 bbls No. 1 Extra at $3,50.

SEEDS—Sale of 60 bush Flaxseed, to go East at $2,25. There is no change in Timothy or Clover.

CHEESE—unchanged; sale of 50 boxes prime W. R. at 12c.

BUTTER—is firm and in demand; sale of 4 bbls prime Roll at 19c. Packed is worth 12½@13c.

APPLES—lower; sale in lots of 210 bbls at from $1,50 to $2,00 per bbl as to quality.

PETROLEUM IN NEW YORK.—The New York World of yesterday says: "The excitement in petroleum continues. We notice sales of Crude at 43@44c and of Refined at 85c, said to be large, but the details of transactions cannot be ascertained. 90c is now the price and we heard that price had been refused for an extra line."

AMONG the bids offered for the 7-30 three years Bonds, we observe the name of Foster H. Smith, of Pittsburgh. His bid was for $10,000 at $1,25 premium.

PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET, Nov. 17.—The market opened this morning and prices are rather better, in consequence of the light receipts, which only reached 1,545 head this week. Go d Western and Chester county steers sold early in the day at better prices, say $6@8,50 ₩ 100 lbs, and a few extra at $8,75; ordinary to fair are selling at $7@7,50, and common at $5@4 gross. Several lots of poor Western heifers sold at still lower prices.

The bulk of the stock on sale to-day is of very poor quality, and at the close were selling very low, as the drovers were anxious to get off all their stock, in consequence of the wet weather.

Cows and Calves—The arrivals and sales of Cows, at Phillips' Avenue Drove Yard reached 80 head this week, selling at $18 to $30 for springers, and $20@40 ₩ head for Cows and Calf. Some poor quality sold at $15 ₩ head.

Calves—There is very little doing, and the offerings are light; sales of first quality at 4½@5½c, and second quality (small) at from 3@4c, according to size.

Sheep—The arrivals and sales of Sheep at Phillips' Avenue Drove Yard are moderate this week, reaching about 3,000 head. Extra quality at from 6@6,25 ₩ lb, and ordinary to fair at 4@4,12 ½ ₩ lb, as to condition and quality.

Stock Sheep are selling at $2,25@3 ₩ head, as to quality. Several lots sold, later in the day, at $2 ₩ head.

Hogs—The arrivals and sales of fat Hogs at Imbrie's Union Drove Yard are large this week, reaching 6,693 head, at prices ranging from $5,00@6 for still-fed, and from $5,75@6,50 ₩ 100 lbs for corn-fed Hogs, as to condition and quality. The market is rather more active this week, and prices are fair.

CHICAGO MARKET, Nov. 17, p. m.—Notwithstanding a decline of 1c per bushel in freights, the leading markets were quiet and depressed. Flour was heavy at a decline of 5@10c per barrell on both spring and winter grades. Winter extras sold at a range of from $5,00@5,50, and fair to good spring extras at $4,25@4,65.

The inquiry for wheat was mainly for the lower grades. There was no note a decline in the market for No. 2 Red at 92½c per bushel, with sales of No. 2 Red at 92½@94c; Rejected Red, 88@90c; No. 1 Spring, 92½@93c; No. 2 Spring, 75@75c. Rejected Spring, 65@68c.

The demand for Corn was light, and prices declined ½c per bushel. Sales foot up in the neighborhood of 70,000 bushels at 37½c afloat for Yellow; 30½@31½c for Mixed afloat; 29@30c for Mixed in store, and 27c for Rejected in store.

The inquiry for Oats was light, and prices declined 1c per bushel, with sales of No. 1 in store at fully 1c per bushel, and No. 2 at 33@34½c for old and new receipts. Rye was quiet and steady at 53c per bushel. Barley is in fair demand at former quotations. Provisions were dull and nominal. Lard sold to a limited extent at 8½c for prime City Kettle-rendered. High wines were active and nominal. Hides firm and steady. Dressed Hogs are coming in slowly, but the market has not been fairly established. A few lots have changed hands at $4,00@4,25.

The receipts of produce to-day comprise, 1,776 bbls flour, 48,933 bush wheat, 71,212 bush corn, 15,058 bush oats, 4,537 bush rye, 3019 bush barley, and 58,133 lbs seeds.

The receipts of wheat on the corresponding date of last year amounted to 89,584 bush.

LIVE STOCK.—We learn that a great deal of live stock has been accumulating recently in the vicinity of the Bridgeport depot of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad. The road has been so crowded with freight that it has not been able to build cars fast enough to accommodate its shippers. The shipment of live stock will commence this week, when it is expected that there will be a great rush for who shall have the preference.—Wheeling Intelligencer.

VALUABLE COAL PROPERTY FOR SALE.—150 ACRES OF COAL PRIVILEGE, adjoining the town of Steubenville, Jefferson county, Ohio. The Steubenville Coal and Coke has been tately tested at the Belmont Furnace, at Martinsville, Ohio, nearly opposite Wheeling, where full information may be had of its qualities for smelting iron ore. This Coal and Coke proves to be the best for smelting purposes of any west of the mountains. Iron can be made for less money at Steubenville than at any point west of the mountains. The important fact is, the receiving and shipping of all materials without hauling. This property is finely located, being one-third of a mile upon the Ohio river, and the Wheeling extension of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad running the whole length of said coal field. Also, the Pan-Handle (so called) Railroad crosses the other railroad upon this property. Coal can be dropped from the pit cars upon the railroad, or upon boats in the Ohio river, or into the top of a furnace, without second handling. There is a large body of coal adjoining the above tract that can be secured if required. The following are prices that iron ore has been offered and sold for, furnished by persons conversant with the business, and may be relied upon: 10,000 tons of native ore could have been contracted for, delivered at the furnace, burnt ready for use, 50 per cent. ore, at $3 per ton; Lake Superior ironore has been bought at Cleveland for $5 per ton, freight from that point to Steubenville $1 57;—cost, dropped at the furnace, $6 57; Lake Champlain and Missouri Iron Mountain ore about the same. There is an abundance of fire clay, limestone and sandstone upon it, and in the vicinity. The present rates for all materials cost more now: also the metal. Any person wishing to make an investment will please call upon WM. O. ABRAHAM, at Steubenville, who will be ready to show the premises and explain its advantages; or upon the undersigned, at No. 112 Fourth street, Pittsburgh.

P. C. SHANNON.
