The London Times has the following in Liberation of Pierre Soule.] The country has been surprised within a few days at the liberation of this rele-brated and perhaps dangerous man from his imprisonment in Fort Lafsyette. He is a native of France; was sent in early life to the Jeinit College of Toulous, with the object of being educated for the Church; hut wearying of that, he finished his edu-cation at Bordeaux. Afterwards he su-dif is spinted within all the causes of trouble to getter, for the settled at New Orleans, studied the Prison, but managed to escape to America. He settled at New Orleans, studied the English language, entered the profession of hw, and became wealthy. In 1847 he was elected to the Senste of the United States to fill a vacancy, and was fre-elected in 1849. In the Senste he took extreme friendly things that have been uttered by the orators and press of that country, its government should become our shield against the designs of the most dangerous
