where the fiamas first broker out. The rapid spread of the fire in the second story of the main building was very singular, and can only be accounted for upon the supposition that oil had been spliled on the floor. Mr. Brash informs us that there were not seven gallons of oil in the entire works. There were small quantities of labricating oil, and also some iron varnish in the building, but these would not exceed the quantity stated abare.

a very important arrest—that of a man named George Belden, who was caught in the act of rolus coin. He had with him a market bas-ket in which he carried the notes and coin. It was soon after discovered that George Thompson, keeper of a cheap hotel on Birer. street, had been engaged in selling the stuff, when the two was arrested. The money found on the partier is the best specimen of cointer-falting that has been put into circulation for years. The bills are all on Canada Banks, and ase so finally excented that He parales canada, with engraved date of Sopi. 20, 1859; $5° on the Bank of Montreal, engraved date Ist Sopi. 1858; and $3° son the Bank of To-ronto, with date Sept. 15, 1858.
