LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

From Saturday's Evening Edition.

Verdict in the Childs Case.

The trial of George Childs for rape on the person of Miss Clara Shands, which was brought to a termination on the Court House Saturday morning, and that lady (who had previously come into Court and left) was called, and her testimony taken down in writing. The prisoner was then called upon for his defence, and he stated that he was innocent of the charge, and that the lady had consented to the act. He was then remanded to jail, and the Court adjourned until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock, the Court was opened, and the jury in the case called. The prisoner was brought into Court and placed at the bar, and the Clerk called the jury, who answered to their names. The Clerk then read the indictment, which charged the prisoner with the crime of rape, and the plea of not guilty. The counsel for the defendant, Messrs. Dilworth and Bakewell, then addressed the jury in behalf of the prisoner, and were followed by the District Attorney, Mr. Hampton, who addressed the jury on behalf of the Commonwealth. The Court then charged the jury, and they retired to consider their verdict. They were out about an hour, when they returned into Court with a verdict of guilty. The prisoner was then remanded to jail to await sentence.

The case of Miss Shands has excited much interest in this community, and the trial of Childs was attended by a large crowd of persons. The counsel for the defendant, Messrs. Dilworth and Bakewell, conducted the defence in a very able manner, and the jury, in rendering their verdict, have done their duty in a fearless manner. The verdict will remove the stain which has been cast upon the character of Miss Shands, and will have a tendency to prevent crimes of a similar character in the future. The counsel for the defendant will have a motion for a new trial made by one of the jury, on Saturday next, when the Court will hear and decide upon the matter. The prisoner will have a very narrow escape from the penitentiary, as there will be no sympathy in the way of pardoning him.

"Camp Reeves."

The 11th Regiment is at Aquia Creek; have named their camp as above, in honor of Dr. L. Reeves Berg, formerly of this city. The Doctor is a gentleman of fine abilities, and will deservedly attain a high position in the profession. He is a native of Allegheny, the Jerry M. Burns of Pittsburgh, and is a son-in-law of Mr. Wm. Wilkins, Jr. We wish the gallant 11th success, and hope to hear of the Doctor's promotion.

Burglary in Allegheny.

On Monday night the residence of Mr. Anthony, on Washington street, Second ward, Allegheny, was burglariously entered and robbed of a variety of articles of wearing apparel, &c. The thieves entered through a window of the basement, which was left open, and ransacked the house very expeditiously. They carried off a large bundle of clothing, and other goods, which they packed in a bag. The police have a clue to the thieves, and will probably succeed in recovering the property.
