COMMISSIONER BOWEN'S REPORT.

Commissioner Bowen's report on the introduction and operations of the Tax law of the month of January, 1863.

It says that the number of persons in the of the Bureau, including assessors, collectors, assistant assessors, or assistant collectors, was 1,200. It estimates the revenue, exclusive of interest, on the 20th of next June, at $50,000,000, and from stamp at $10,000,000. This estimate corresponds with statements made months ago in these dispatches, and is not far from the special estimate made in the District report.

As regards the compensation of assessors, the Commissioner suggests the payment of a reasonable amount for office rent, also, and a salary of $1,000 per year when the receipts are $400,000 or less, and an additional amount for each $100,000 in excess of that amount. The total cost of the operation of the law, he estimates at $2,000,

000. The total expenses of collection are, he estimates at $1,000,000. The Commissioner estimates that the revenue from the tax will be $50,000,000. The Commissioner
